VICTORY IN HARDEST FOUGHT BATTLE IN SENATE HISTORY.

IS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER

No Other Senator Has So Many Visitors, and Congratulations Come to Him From All Over State.

(By William Job.)

Jefferson City, March 7.—I see by the paper Northwest Missouri is covered over with snow. We have no snow down here. I often wonder if it would be this way in off years, when the assembly is not in session. I can account for it now. So much hot air, "don't you know." It has been unusually warm around the capitol of late. There has been something doing; in fact, there has been something doing all the time. It has been a long time since so many important measures have been before the assembly and passed upon, and there are more coming.

The county unit bill occupied the time of the senate Wednesday afternoon. We engrossers worked overtime and cleaned up our docket by noon, locked up the office and took a half day off for the first time in six weeks, and joined the crowd that filled the senate gallery and all the space in the senate chamber outside the railing.

Owing to the fact that Lieutenant Governor Painter was acting as governor during the temporary absence from the state of Governor Major, Senator Wilson of Platte county presided. Immediately after Senator Craig called up the county unit bill and stated the object and purpose of it, Senator Gardner of St. Louis county, the Republican floor leader, moved to amend it so that cities and towns of 4,000 inhabitants and over might vote on the question separately from the county. On this amendment the debate began and the fur began to fly. The wets chose well when they offered the amendment through Senator Gardner. He is an able man and a good speaker. He was assisted by Senators Whitledge of St. Genevieve, White of Lynn, Casey of Jackson and Brunk of St. Louis. Senator Craig opposed the amendment, made a strong speech in opposition to it and was assisted by Senators Carter of Clark, McClintic of Monroe, Crossley of Johnson and Cain of Stoddard. Several others came into the fight for a time, among them being Hawkins of Dunklin, who only a short time ago made a grandstand play in the senate lobby and the lobby at the Madison house as to what he was going to do for an editor who had placed him on the wet side. When he was on the floor in support of the amendment and tried to answer the questions put to him by Senator Craig he got himself so badly mixed it was hard to tell what he was trying to get at. When the amendment was put on roll call the vote stood 16 to 16. President Pro Tem. Wilson was thus forced to cast the deciding vote, which he cast against the amendment, thus forcing the senate to go on record on a strict county unit bill.

Senator Craig immediately called the bill for final passage and the vote stood 20 for to 12 against. Senators White, Allee, Baldwin and Cates, who had voted for the amendment, voted for the bill on its final passage. After making the argument some of them did in favor of the amendment, I would have to have done so myself, but they couldn't afford to go home and face their constituents with a record of that kind. Hawkins of Dunklin and Whitledge of St. Genevieve were the only votes cast against it from country districts.

I see in the St. Louis Republic a statement giving Charles M. Hay of Callaway county the lion's share of the glory. I regard Charles M. Hay by far the most able man in the house of representatives. He has no superior and I doubt very much if he has an equal. But Mr. Hay, in handling that measure in that body, had easy sailing. It was overwhelmingly in favor of it, while two years ago Mr. Craig handled that measure in the house and succeeded in passing it when it looked like sure defeat. Senator Craig deserves the credit for winning the hardest fought battle that has ever been won on the floor of the state senate of Missouri. From the time this bill was reported out of the committee adversely last Monday until its final passage in the senate it was entirely in his hands. Every move that was made in the management of the bill in the senate was made at his decision. He listened to advice and information from all the leaders of the dyes, but he decided the final action and took it. He conducted himself two years ago in this same fight and at this time throughout as a perfect gentleman. He has the respect of every member of the forty-seventh assembly. This, and other measures that have a tendency to better the morals of our state has won for him congratulations from over the entire state. There is not a chair in the Missouri state senate that is visited by as many people as that of Senator Craig. Mr. Craig is like all men who try to accomplish something in the community in which he lives and has his own interests in trade and traffic to look after. We all bump up against people that don't see and think as we do. The man that has never made an enemy in his community has done but very little progressively, let that be as it may.

SECONDS RALLIED AND WON.

Normal Reserves Overcame 19-9 Lead and Beat Albany High 31-27—Eek and Taylor Starred.

With the score 19 to 9 against them at the end of the first half, the Normal seconds rallied in the final period and defeated the Albany high school five in a fast game of basketball Friday night at the Normal gymnasium. The final count was 31 to 27.

The locals played a very loose defensive game in the first half, but they tightened up in the last half and held the enemy to eight points. Coach Moore shifted Eek to center and Watson to forward in the second half, and this proved a winning combination.

Eek and Taylor played the best game for the Normal, while Parmon at center and Gill at guard were the best performers for the enemy. Burkhardt, the other Albany guard, is the chap who set a new mark for the discus in the 1912 track meet here. Degginger, the Albany captain, is undoubtedly the biggest grandstander who ever performed on the local court. He amused the fans by his numerous attempts for goal from anywhere on the court he happened to gain possession of the sphere, and he finally caged a long one, seemingly much to his own satisfaction.

The seconds will probably play a return game at Albany next week.

The line-up:
Albany—Forwards, Degginger, Stapleton and Graham; center, Parman; guards, Burkhardt and Gill.

Normal seconds—Forwards, La Mar, Eek and Brittain; center, Quinn and Eek; guards, Taylor and Brittain.

Referee—Thornton, Albany.

Umpire—Vandersloot, Maryville.

In a preliminary contest Prof. Cameron's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church defeated H. J. Becker's class of the Christian church by a score of 16 to 10. John Carter Taylor was the official.

Met With Accident.

Mrs. James McGinnis, who lives three miles north of Bedison, met with a very painful accident Friday when she fell in the yard near her home and broke the wrist bone of her right hand. The fractured member was set by Dr. Todd of Maryville.

TO START PAVING

CITY ATTORNEY INSTRUCTED TO DRAFT ORDINANCE.

AFTER SIDEWALKS, TOO

Report of Water Department for January and February Shows Surplus—Phillips' Contract Approved.

At the council meeting Friday evening, held in the new city quarters in the Baker building, this being their first meeting there, the paving campaign was started when City Attorney Wiles was instructed to draft an ordinance ordering property holders to pave North Market street between First and Third, Fifth street between Buchanan and Market, and two alleys, one between Main and Market, and Fourth and Fifth streets, and the other between Main and Market and Second and Third streets. A remonstrance petition can be filed and one will probably be filed against paving these streets by the property owners.

The council also intends to start their sidewalk campaign, and the street committee with the street commissioner and city engineer will make an inspection trip over the city the next week to look over all sidewalks and crossings. All of the defective sidewalks and bad crossings will be reported by the committee at their next meeting, to be held March 17. Steps will then be taken ordering these property holders to build new sidewalks.

The contract of the board of public works with Hiram Phillips was approved by the council. The contract calls for hiring Phillips as engineer and for him to suggest what improvements are necessary, and other plans.

Henry Foster, who has been alderman from the First ward, attended his last meeting Friday night. He is to move from that ward to the Fourth ward the coming week. Mayor Robey will appoint some one to take his place for the next month, as his term will expire in April at the city election. Other aldermen whose terms will be out in April are C. D. Hooker from the Second, John Gray from the Third and Louis Gram from the Fourth. The city election is to be held on Tuesday, April 1, and no other city officers are to be voted on.

According to the report of Superintendent Lou Denny of the city water plant the receipts of the plant exceeded the disbursements in January and February. The city has had charge of the water plant for two months. For January the receipts were $1,525.27, and the disbursements were $1,254.80, leaving cash on hand at the end of the month of $270.47, including in the disbursements $355.90 spent for fuel, $223.85 for general supplies, $37.62 for repairs. For February the receipts were $1,189.42, and the disbursements were $1,054.02, leaving a balance on hand at the end of the month of $126.40. Also there are delinquent receipts of $173.03, which have not been collected. The big item in the disbursements in February was for fuel, which amounted to $625.88.

THE BAND IS HOME

THREE MEMBERS STOPPED IN ST. LOUIS FOR VISIT.

MANY PICTURES TAKEN

Washington Papers Published Complimentary Notices—All Are Worn Out From Strenuous Week.

Miss Alma Nash and her Missouri Ladies Military band arrived in Maryville at 6 o'clock Saturday morning on the Wabash, worn out, sleeping and tired from the most strenuous week of excitement and sight-seeing they have ever known. The part they took in the suffragist parade in Washington last Monday, March 3, preceding the inauguration, is not yet fully realized by them.

"Everything went so fast, there were so many people, so many beautiful things to see and all that we have not yet had time to stop and think about what a really important thing we did do when our band led the parade down Pennsylvania avenue," Miss Nash said this morning. Miss Nash, continuing, said:

"We were not right in the lead when the parade started, because a mounted escort of women with a number of officers of the National Equal Suffrage association walking behind, with our band following, was the order in which we first started. We had gone but a short distance, however, when the crowd began closing up toward the line of the parade, and men were blockading a place in the street a short distance ahead, when one of the suffragist officers came rushing back to us and told us to march on ahead and lead, and that it would be necessary for the band to open the way, which proved true. We were not molested in the least, and although the march was slow on account of the great crowds, no one offered to stand in our way down the avenue.

"A picture of our band was taken as we were marching past the Peace monument by a Washington Star reporter, and after a cut was made from the picture, which appeared in that evening's paper, the photographer presented it to me."

All of the Washington city papers spoke in the most complimentary terms of the ladies band, and published several pictures of them while marching.

Several members of the band stopped in St. Louis on their way home for a few days' visit. Miss Helen Rowley and Miss Gertrude Kirch are guests of Miss Rowley's grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Rowley, and Misses Sebec and May Rowley. Miss Kirch will return Monday, while Miss Rowley will continue her visit two weeks. Miss Anna Dougan stopped at St. Louis for a visit with relatives, and Mrs. Velma Gray Johnson stopped at St. Charles to visit her sister-in-law, Dr. Gertrude DuVall, and Miss Cornelia Hurst. The other members of the band who returned home Saturday morning are: Misses Grace and Mary O'Brien, Hazel Garrett, Mary Q. Evans, Velma Lanning, Lela Caudle, Mrs. Del Thompson, Myrtle Lanning, Ora Quinn, Helene Young, Hazel Vandervort, Margaret Conway, May Shipp, Florence Shipp, Orlena Helply, Elizabeth Nash, Selma Young, Esther Eversole, Miss Alma Nash and Mrs. G. A. Nash, who chaperoned the party.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

Raymond Mikelson Passed Away Saturday Morning, After Week's Illness of Pneumonia.

Raymond Dale Mikelson, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Mikelson, living southeast of Maryville, near Bedison, died Saturday forenoon at 11:40 o'clock, after a week's illness of pneumonia.

The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Swinford church, one mile east of the Mikelson home, and will be conducted by Rev. Claude J. Miller.

The young man was 16 years old February 2 last. He is survived by his parents, a sister, Ernil May Mikelson, and two brothers, Jesse Lee and Baille Mikelson, all younger than the deceased, who was born on the farm on which he died.

SENATOR STONE THE TARGET.

Senior Senator's Course Caused Attack by Paper Which Was Censured by State Senate.

Jefferson City, March 7.—An effort by Republican members to "smoke out" the Missouri senate as to its attitude toward United States Senator William Joel Stone was successful today and all of the Democratic senators, some of them against their will, were forced to vote on a resolution condemning a St. Louis publication for criticizing the senior senator from Missouri.

A roll call was demanded and every member of the upper house save two, Craig of Maryville and Cain of Bloomfield, voted for the resolution.

The journal publishing the offensive article is a "dry" sheet called "The American Issue." It contained a Washington dispatch, in which it referred to Senator Stone as "a blind pig senator," because he voted against the Webb bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into prohibition states. The names of the senators who voted against the measure were printed under the subhead, "Blacklisting of Blind Pig Senators." In the list Stone's name appeared.

Inasmuch as Stone is to become a candidate for re-election in about fourteen months, and as most of the state senators are Major Democrats, the situation was painful.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Thomas B. Whitledge, Republican, of St. Mary's. It referred to the fact that copies of The American Issue containing the article had been placed on the desk of every senator. It recited that the article is an insult, not only to Senator Stone but to the whole people of the state, and concluded thus:

"Therefore, be it resolved, That it is hereby denounced and condemned."

He made an impassioned speech in support of the resolution.

Then came Senator A. E. L. Gardner of St. Louis, another Republican, who eloquently defended Stone, and denounced the paper that had maligned him.

Senator Bronson of Ozark, Republican, was grieved and shocked. He said the editor of a journal that would print such infamy should be deported to a leper colony. "William Joel Stone is nothing to me, politically," he said. "But he is my United States senator."

Then the Democratic senators had their inning. Senator Crossley, Democrat, of Warrensburg thought there was no occasion to get excited about the matter. Senator Carter, Democrat, of Clark county said: "I don't think we should stop the wheels of legislation to adopt this resolution. But what does nettles me is the fact that our Republican friends assume a sort of guardianship over the Democratic party."

Senator Craig, Democrat, of Maryville favored referring the resolution to a committee. "I think we'll make a mistake if we pass it," he said.

Other comments were:
Senator McClintic, Democrat: "I don't indorse the published article, but I deprecate the resolution."

Senator Allee, a Democrat: "I would not have introduced such a resolution, but since it is before us we must pass it."

Senator Hawkins, Democrat: "I am sorry this resolution was introduced. If I had my way about it I would go after that editor in the old Kentucky style."

Senator Cain, Democrat: "I have only kind words for Senator Stone, but let us ignore this article; don't let us fly off the handle. It won't hurt the senator from Missouri for us to turn down this resolution. It should be referred to the proper committee."

Senator White, Democrat: "Stone is secure in his reputation regardless of our action, but let's not chloroform this resolution as Senators Craig and Cain would have us do."

Senator McClintic, Democrat: "The action of the senate in adopting this resolution will do more to dignify this scurrilous sheet than silent contempt would have done. I'm sorry the question was brought up."

Visited His Brother in Hospital.

James W. Ray returned a few days ago from Omaha where he visited his brother, Charles W. Ray, of Golden Prairie, Wyo., in the Methodist hospital there. Mr. Ray was assisting his sons in butchering on their ranch in Wyoming, about two weeks ago, when he struck himself in the left eye with butcher knife. He was taken at once to Omaha for treatment, and is under the care of Drs. Gifford and Patton, eye specialists. He will soon be able to return home, but his physicians are not yet able to say whether he will be able to see with the injured eye. Mr. Ray and his family moved to Golden Prairie from Maryville about seven years ago.

GUN-SHOT VICTIM

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE WOUNDS MRS. REYNOLDS.

SHOTS WERE GLANCING

Guilford Woman Injured by Gun in Hands of Her Son—Eight Shots Pierced Her Side and Arm.

Another victim of injury from the gun that wasn't loaded was Mrs. George Reynolds, wife of a farmer living southeast of Guilford, who was painfully, though not seriously injured Friday afternoon, by being struck in the right arm and side by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of her nine year old son, Cleo.

The accident happened at the Reynolds' home about 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. The injured woman and her son were in the living room together and the boy was tinkering with a twelve gauge singlebarreled shotgun. When the gun was discharged most of the shot struck the Round Oak stove, and luckily, those that struck Mrs. Reynolds were only glancing shots.

Dr. M. M. Pollard happened to be in the vicinity at the time and he was immediately called. Examination disclosed that only eight shots had pierced the woman's arm and side and that the injury was not serious.

TO REMODEL COURT ROOMS.

Committee of Attorneys Appointed to Confer With County Court in the Matter.

Circuit court adjourned late Friday afternoon until Monday, when several motions will be taken up, and Cecil Stackhouse, who has been in the county jail charged with forgery, and Thomas Gugerty, charged with common assault, will be arraigned. The February term of court is about over and an adjournment will be taken next week.

The court Friday appointed L. C. Cook, W. A. Blagg and A. F. Harvey to see the county court about some improvements needed in the circuit court room. A re-arrangement of the court room is being planned. The court would like to see a partition built in the southeast corner of the court room, where law books can be kept and the attorneys can hold their conferences during the progress of a trial in this new room. One reason for the change is to keep the law library in a room so the books cannot be taken out when there is no court. There will be a lock to the door so the room can be closed when there is no court. There is some talk of re-arranging the jury box.

The following cases were disposed of late Friday afternoon.

A. C. Snyder vs. C. E. Taylor, appeal from J. P. court, cause stricken from the docket and no costs are taxable against either party.

A. O. Mason vs. J. C. Chappell, attachment, sheriff ordered by agreement to sell property attached at private sale.

John A. Hogan et al. vs. Peter Mergen et al., will contest, continued for want of service in time.

Joseph T. B. Johnson vs. Rosetta Sowers and Willis Sawyers, will contest, continued by agreement.

E. E. Williams, administrator, vs. John W. and J. E. Shearer, note, continued for want of service in time.

Hugh Thrasher vs. C. G. W., damages, continued for want of service in time.

Joseph McLaughlin vs. John G. Hayes, motion to quash execution, continued at plaintiff's costs.

Prosecuting Attorney Wright notified the following cases:

Ad Huffstutter, selling and giving away cigarette papers.

A. F. Reeder, charges of disturbing the peace.

CHARGED WITH COMMON ASSAULT

Thomas Gugerty of Conception Was Brought to Maryville Saturday and is in Jail.

Thomas Gugerty of Conception Junction was arrested and brought to Maryville Saturday morning by Gate Purcell on a charge of common assault. The prosecuting witness is Fred Litten. The fight took place at the Junction Friday night, when Litten was considerably bruised up by Gugerty with a beer bottle, it is said. Gugerty had been to Maryville early in the evening, and it is said had wet goods with him when he returned to the Junction on the late Wabash train. He invited Litten to take a drink, and when he refused Gugerty began to attack him, and it is said hit him across the head with a bottle. Gugerty is now in the county jail and will be arraigned Monday.

Sunday evening at 7:30 Rev. J. D. Randolph, pastor of the Buchanan street Methodist church will preach the first of three sermons on "Making an American Home." The subject will be, "What Are Some of the Conditions of a Successful Marriage?" The second of the series will be preached Sunday evening, March 16th, on the theme, "The Significance of the Rising Tide of Divorce." The third will not be preached until March 30th. The subject will be, "The Place of Religion in Home Making."

TELEPHONE MEETING.

Many in Attendance at the Farmers Phone Meeting in Circuit Court Room This Afternoon.

The Farmers telephone meeting being held this afternoon in the circuit court room is largely attended, and the meeting was presided over by W. A. White as chairman and John R. Evans as secretary. The proposition of incorporation is to be taken up, but at a late hour this afternoon the members were still discussing the matter. There seems to be quite an opposition to incorporation among some of the members.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Holy week will be observed with four mid-week services, aside from the Palm Sunday and Easter service programs. Our fellowship and worship is yours.

Buchanan Street Methodist.

There is a great lesson for the Sunday school hour on "The Destruction of Sodom." Lot is a good example of the business man who succeeds in business, but fails as a father. We begin at 9:30 a. m. Meet with us.

Preaching by the pastor at 10:45 a. m. Are you tired Sunday morning after the week's work? Feel like resting all morning? Rather read the paper than hear a sermon? Take this for a morning thought tomorrow when you get up. I have worked for myself all week. I ought to work for God today. If all the tired people stayed at home there wouldn't be many at church. My pastor will preach better if I encourage him by my presence at the service.

League at 6:30 p. m.
Preaching by the pastor at 7:30 p. m. "What Are Some of the Conditions of a Successful Marriage?" This will be the first of three sermons on "Making an American Home."

"Over the Teacups" Club.

This rather new club met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. S. G. Gillam. It is purely a social organization. All the members were present excepting Mrs. George P. Bellows. The other members are Mrs. J. B. Robinson, Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode, Mrs. George L. Wilfley, Mrs. Charles S. Jackson, Mrs. O. C. Hanna, Mrs. C. C. Corwin, Mrs. J. F. Colby, Mrs. G. H. Colbert, Mrs. S. G. Gillam, Mrs. V. I. Moore.

A Dance at Woodmen Hall.

A dance was given Friday evening at the Woodmen of the World hall in the Roseberry building by that lodge for their members and friends. The music was furnished by Frank and Lon Reynolds and Dave Williams. Many couples attended the dance. On Friday evening, March 21, a hard time social is to be given by the Woodmen lodge for their members and friends.

For Miss Shoemaker.

Mrs. D. J. Thomas gave a Friday evening party for Miss Esther Shoemaker, who will be a March bride. The house decorations were entirely of hearts and potted plants. The prizes at progressive hearts went to Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend and Mr. F. G. Shoemaker, and the guest prize to Miss Shoemaker. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Boyd of Kansas City, Miss Louise Sallander of Ft. Madison, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Clark of Chillicothe.

Ernest Yeaman Surprised.

The Endeavor society of the First Christian church gave a surprise party for its president, Mr. Ernest Yeaman, in the church parlors Friday evening. Mr. Yeaman will depart Sunday night for Chicago, where he will be employed in the offices of the American Railway company. About fifty members were present to do him honor, and a handsome gold C. E. pin was presented him. Mr. Yeaman has made an excellent president for the society, the work having increased 100 per cent during his administration of one year and a half.

Parnell Art Club Met.

Mrs. Frank Hall was hostess to the Parnell Art club Thursday afternoon. After the usual time at work the business session was held, and among other things the name of "The Parnell Art Club" chosen for the club name, then the luncheon. After the members were served the hostess gave a luncheon in honor of her daughter, Veronica, who was 5 years old that day, seventeen of the little girl's friends partaking of the feast. The members of the club present at Thursday's meeting were Mrs. Elias Klaas, Mrs. John O'Day, Mrs. Everett Bailey, Mrs. S. B. Moody, Mrs. H. O. Gray, Mrs. Fred Brett, Mrs. Ben Jones, Mrs. Ed Jones, Mrs. Charles Evans, Mrs. W. N. Morgan, Mrs. C. V. Roof, Mrs. Loren Long.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zwilling and family, living six and a half miles southeast of Clearmont, were surprised Thursday evening by their friends and neighbors, who took ice cream and cake with them and went to their home to spend the evening and celebrate Mrs. Zwilling's birthday anniversary. Music and games were the main pastimes. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Newton LeGrande, Mr. and Mrs. James Hornbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. Tillie Hornbuckle and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sowers, Mr. and Mrs. James Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Reynolds and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, Misses Clara Neff, Nola and Iva Farness, Gertie Edwards, Carrie Neal, Messrs. Lon Sexton, James Edwards, Jr., Otis Falkner, Lennis, Lee and Frances Curran, William and Ella Zwilling.

Palestine Aid Society.

The Ladies' Aid society of Palestine church, twelve miles southwest of Maryville, met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Charles, when the time was spent delightfully in sewing and in a social way. Mrs. Sumner Shockley and Mr. Will Gex were guests of the society. The hostess also entertained her Sunday school class at this time and served a most appetizing luncheon to all the company. Sickness among the members of the society and bad roads kept several away. The members present were Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Will Gex, Mrs. John Gex, Mrs. John Neal, Mrs. Dick McDowell, Miss Minnie Farmer. The

WOMEN ASK WRAPPED BREAD.

Bakers Wouldn't Eat Own Product if They Saw Drivers Handle It, Says Chicago Clubwoman.

Chicago, March 6.—Clubwomen have begun a campaign to compel bakers to wrap bread. Five women appeared before a city council committee yesterday and debated against representatives of the bakers opposing the proposed ordinance.

"If you gentlemen would follow one of your drivers for a single day, you would not touch a loaf of bread he delivered," asserted Mrs. A. M. Weinberg, vice president of the Clean Food club. "One day I saw a driver with dirty hands and wearing no gloves, carrying bread into a grocery. After that I baked my own bread."

A representative of the bakers remarked during the discussion that the husband of a Ravenswood clubwoman whispered to him, while his wife and others were inspecting a bakery that he preferred unwrapped bread.

"Yes, I knew that man," responded Mrs. Charles H. Betts, "he died a month later."

Winfield Scott Critically Ill.

Winfield Scott, one of the best known farmers in the county, was brought to St. Francis hospital Friday night from his home, west of Maryville, by physicians. A surgical operation was the intention, but owing to the seriousness of his condition after arriving at the hospital, the matter was given up. He is not expected to survive long.

Visiting in Bolckow.

Mrs. W. E. Goforth and Miss Doris and Donald went to Bolckow Friday evening to remain over Sunday the guests of Mr. Goforth's sister, Mrs. Wier Cooper, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goforth. Mr. Goforth will join his family Sunday morning.

"Mutt and Jeff."

"Mutt and Jeff," a real comedy with real music, the kind you like to hear and the sort you'll whistle on the way home, comes to the Empire theater next Wednesday night. Gus Hill sends the big two-car show with forty-five clever people, singers, dancers and comedians, including twenty-five cute little grilles, half of them "squabs." A magnificent scenic production, including the steamship "Insurgent" in South American waters, will be seen—not forgetting "Mutt and Jeff," the inimitable laugh producers, who are constantly in evidence, except when a breathing spell is absolutely necessary, then a catchy musical number is introduced to prevent convulsions. The reason for the extraordinary success of Gus Hill's unique comedy is evident to the audience before the play has been under way for five minutes. Don't miss "Mutt and Jeff."

S. S. Webb and Charles Ferguson of Burlington Junction were in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Miller Improving.

Best Known Cough Remedy.

For forty-three years Dr. King's New Discovery has been known throughout the world as the most reliable cough remedy. Over three million bottles were used last year. Isn't this proof? It will get rid of your cough, or we will refund your money. J. J. Owens, of Allendale, S. C., writes the way hundreds of others have done: "After twenty years, I find that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds that I have ever used." For coughs or colds and all throat and lung troubles, it has no equal. 50c and $1.00 at the Orear-Henry Drug Co.—Advertisement.

BRIBERY IN HYDE TRIAL

Bailiff in Charge of Jury Says
He Was Offered $1,500.

FORMER JURYMAN MADE OFFER

Kansas City, March 8.—Thomas Hollowell, a deputy marshal in charge of the jury in the Hyde murder trial, told Judge Porterfield he had been offered a bribe of $1,000 to bring about a hung jury in the case and $1,500 to bring about an acquittal. Judge Porterfield issued a John Doe warrant for the arrest of a jurymen in the second Hyde trial, who, according to Hollowell, made the offer.

Hollowell said the juror called him over the telephone last week and made an appointment with him, and then said:

"Tom, I want to talk turkey to you. There's $1,000 in it for you if the Hyde jury hangs. There's $1,500 for an acquittal."

Frank P. Walsh, chief of counsel for the defense, said:

"I don't believe there is a word of truth in the whole story."

Judge Porterfield said he had known of the alleged attempt since last week and had been working ever since to get the alleged briber into a trap.

Judge Porterfield admitted that Hollowell had made to him the allegations credited to the deputy.

"Hollowell," said the judge, "is a reliable man, and I have no reason to discredit his statements. A John Doe warrant has been issued, but further than this I can say nothing."

PROVIDES RURAL SCHOOLS

Missouri Senate Passes Bill to Give Country Children Better Chance.

Jefferson City, March 8.—The senate passed the bill providing for rural high schools and for a teachers' training course to be taught in all the high schools. These measures will cost the state a large sum annually. In return, however, it is promised that a system of rural high schools will be established in every county that now is without these advantages and render it unnecessary in future years for Missouri to draw on other states annually for 2,500 school teachers.

The house passed a bill by Moore of Barton requiring companies that handle motor car insurance to take out a license. The fee is set at $25.

The Painter road dragging bill providing for an interconnecting system of state dragged roads was sent to engrossment in the house. The bill already has passed the senate. It will establish a system of 9,000 miles of state road. Lieutenant Governor Painter says.

BILLIKOLF'S PLEA TO STATE

Kansas Citian Asks Lawmakers for Better Conditions for Feeble Minded.

Jefferson City, March 8.—An appeal for the state to do something to relieve the crowded conditions at the state institution for the feeble minded at Marshall was made before the legislative appropriation committee by Jacob Billikopf of the Kansas City welfare board. At least two thousand feeble minded persons needed the immediate care of the state institution at Marshall who could not be sent there because there was no room for them, Mr. Billikopf said. On the waiting list of the institution were 500 applications, while many others had not been sent in because it was known the colony was full to overflowing.

The Kansas City welfare worker recommended that the next legislature appoint a commission to investigate these subjects and report remedial means to the legislature.

Mother Jones Put on Trial.

Charleston, W. Va., March 8.—"Mother" Jones, the aged labor leader, and fifty other persons, charged before the military commission with conspiracy in connection with the rioting in the Paint Creek section of the Kanawha coal field, were placed on trial before the commission at Paint Creek Junction. Another charge is that they were concerned in the killing of Fred Babbitt, a bookkeeper, shot dead in the fighting at Mucklow. The trial is expected to last several days.

Ways and Means Committee Meets.

Washington, March 8.—With the house ways and means committee meeting to organize, the real tariff work of the Sixty-third congress began. With only three new members of the Democratic side of the committee, it seems practically certain that the tariff measures framed under the supervision of Majority Leader Underwood during the last session would be accepted by the new committee and laid before the caucus before the extra session begins April 1.

Murder Jury Disagrees.

Bolivar, Mo., March 8.—The jurors in the trial of Marshall Copeland, a divinity student at the Morrisville (Mo.) college, charged with killing Bryan Crane, a fellow student, reported a disagreement and were discharged. The case was continued until the next term of court. The killing of Crane was the result of a hazing incident, in which Copeland was the victim.

IF A LAXATIVE IS NEEDED—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills Are Violent—They Act on Bowels as Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.—Advertisement.

MADERO FAMILY IN NEW YORK

Surviving Relatives of Mexico's President Are Peaceful.

New York, March 8.—If the immediate surviving relatives of Francisco I. Madero, the deposed president of Mexico, who was slain a few weeks ago, have any intention of resisting the Diaz-Huerta regime now in power it did not appear from the statements or demeanor of his father, his uncle, and two officials under the former Madero administration, who arrived from Havana on the steamer Mexico.

When Francisco Madero, Sr., was asked by a newspaper man as to reports that Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City used his influence against President Madero at the time of the uprising he simply nodded his head as if in affirmation, but would say nothing.

Ex-Governor Garza, who was with President Madero and Vice President Suarez when they were arrested and was confined in the national palace with them for thirty hours, said the president stipulated with General Huerta that he would resign the presidency if those under arrest with him were liberated and that Huerta permitted Garza to go free simply to deceive Madero.

A. H. LEWIS TESTIFIES

Thaw Family Riches Used Against Him, Is Complaint of Harry.

Albany, N. Y., March 8.—Alfred Henry Lewis of New York told Governor Sulzer's committee of inquiry what he knew concerning the recent efforts to secure Harry K. Thaw's release from the Matteawan hospital.

Mr. Lewis declared he first visited Thaw at the institution about six weeks ago at the instance of former Governor W. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, whom he described as "the attorney for the Thaw family."

He said Thaw told him that while there had been a great deal of talk of the wealth of the Thaw family, "there was $100 to keep me locked up here to every dollar to get me out." Thaw, he said, declared there was a conspiracy to keep him in confinement.

Lewis asserted he knew nothing of the alleged attempt to bribe Dr. Russell, former superintendent of Matteawan, until he read it in the papers.

Henry Charged With Contempt.

New York, March 8.—United States Commissioner Shields held for removal to Washington George G. Henry, the New York banker charged with contempt for refusing to answer questions of the Pujio money trust committee. Henry's counsel obtained his release on a writ of habeas corpus under $2,000 bail.

CONDENSED NEWS

An order issued by Secretary Houston continues in force all rules in the agricultural department.

The Missouri senate adopted the joint resolution, already adopted by the house, ratifying the direct election amendment.

The date of the wedding of Miss Ethel Carow Roosevelt to Dr. Richard Derby of Oyster Bay has been fixed for April 4.

James A. Fowler of Knoxville, Tenn., assistant to the attorney general, will remain as the "trust buster" of the administration until summer at least.

The danger of a general strike on the railroads of Great Britain has been finally overcome, the Midland railroad having surrendered to the railroad workers' union.

The necessity of combinations in "this era of demoralized competition" was the burden of the argument made before the supreme court by John G. Milburn on behalf of the book trust.

HEARS WOMAN TOILER ON WAGES

Dramatic Scene is Feature of Session of Vice Commission.

GIRL CONTRADICTS ROSENWALD

Employee of His Company Does Not Agree With His Statement That There Is No Relation Between Wage and Vice—$8 a Week Not Enough.

Chicago, March 8.—There was a tense, dramatic moment at the end of the forenoon session of the vice commission. Julius Rosenwald, president of Sears, Roebuck & Co., multimillionaire, philanthropist and employer of over 4,000 women, himself at one time head of a vice investigation committee, had been on the stand for hours, testifying to the wage scale of his company and explaining that in his judgment wages and the immorality of women had little to do with each other.

The small room where the sessions are being held was packed with a well dressed crowd, many of them women.

Then a young woman, clad in black and answering to the name of "Emily" took her seat in front of the inquisitors and by the side of Rosenwald.

She had been employed by Sears, Roebuck & Co., but left there to take a better position. Her only criticism of the firm was that the forewoman "scolded" and made some of the luckless culprits guilty of some infraction of the rules, or making a mistake, cry.

Situation Becomes Acute.

Suddenly attention became acute as Lieutenant Governor Barrett O'Hara, a young man, leaned over, and, with blushes, asked the witness a question which he found difficulty in wording.

"We have a great deal of philosophy here today from men; now, let's find out what yours is. If a girl is getting $8 a week (the minimum paid by Sears, Roebuck & Co. to girls living alone) and had to support a widowed mother, would you blame that girl if she—if she—she committed a crime?"

The witness looked puzzled for a moment and then, comprehending looked up frankly and replied: "No, I wouldn't."

"Would you blame her if she killed herself?"

"No, I wouldn't," came the emphatic reply.

"And would you blame her if she committed a greater crime?"

The young lieutenant governor's meaning was in his embarrassed tones and his blushes, and by now the girl was the more composed of the two. She paused just a moment and then repeated, distinctly, "No, I wouldn't."

The room had been painfully quiet but at this there was a round of applause, led by the women spectators and the first general spontaneous outburst of the session.

"Emily" was then dismissed.

"The employers think low wages have nothing to do with immorality among women. The women who have fallen think low wages have everything to do with it."

That was the way a member of the committee summed up the conflicting testimony given at the hearing.

HUEBNER ROLLS RECORD

Chicago Bowler Scores 287 at American Bowling Congress.

Toledo, March 8.—Another American Bowling congress record was established when Louis Huebner of Chicago, rolling in the individuals, scored 287 in his game. This surpasses the former record of 280 held by L. Veil stick of Kansas, made at the tournament in Chicago in 1912.

Huebner's work was marvelous from a bowling standpoint. In his first game he had nine straight strikes.

McFARLAND GAINS DECISION

Jack Britton Outpointed by Packy in Madison Square.

New York, March 8.—Packy McFarland outpointed Jack Britton in ten rounds of a fairly rapid and clever fight at Madison Square Garden.

While McFarland had the better of the argument as a whole, Britton made the better showing in the final round.

Packey showed that he was the cleverer boxer, but Britton proved that he is the hardest hitter.

McReynolds to Tackle Standard Oil

Washington, March 8.—The Standard Oil investigation begun during the Taft administration will be continued by Attorney General McReynolds to determine whether the decree dissolving the giant trust has been violated. It was learned. It is known that Morrison and Pagan have reported that their investigation so far indicates that there is serious doubt whether the "trust" has been actually dissolved.

Canadian House in Deadlock.

Ottawa, Ont., March 8.—Not since 1896 has the Dominion parliament experienced such a protracted deadlock as that which now exists over the clause in the government's navy bill which authorized a grant of $35,000,000 to the British government for building new battleships, which are to be an integral part of the British navy.

The house of commons has now been in continuous session for four days.

High School Notes

The basket ball season at the high school is just about at an end. The class A tournament ended Wednesday, when Murray's team defeated Lyle's team 15 to 14, thus making a clean sweep of it for his team, having won all six games scheduled. Scott's team was a close second with five won and one lost, and Lyle and Blagg divided honors for the last place, each having won one game and lost five.

The class B tournament really held the position of prominence this week, for when the schedule was ended last week it was found that three teams were tied for first place. An elimination contest was arranged for the first three days of this week, and when it was played off the standing remained unchanged. Another elimination series was arranged, the last game of which is to be played Monday.

Unless some games are arranged later the season will close with a series of three games between Murray's team, who finished first in the class A, and a picked team, captained by Paul Thompson.

The visitors of the week were Miss Hermion Fisher, Miss Helen Helply, Miss Ida Martin of Tarkio, and Miss Esther Carothers of Clarinda.

The advanced seniors are having a candy sale at Price & McNeal's store.

The advanced seniors were entertained last night by Miss Edna Moore, Miss Neva Sage, Miss Lois Farmer, Miss Gladys Ford, Mr. Howard Leech and Elmer Montgomery, at the home of Miss Moore, at 815 South Main street. The first part of the evening was spent in portraying the seven ages of life for each member of the class. This was done by cutting a suitable picture from a magazine, pasting it under each age, and writing a piece of poetry to correspond. After the seven ages were completed each student was given the booklet bearing his name as a souvenir. Refreshments were then served, after which parlor games were played. The rooms were very beautifully decorated with class colors and pennants, and piano numbers were given by Misses Sage and Moore. As a conclusion to the evening the class song was sung by the student body. Those present were Harold Booth, Alice Barr, Claire Kidder, Walter Dersch, Marie Cain, George Wamsley, Helen Wamsley, Bessie Webster, Martha Denny, Harry Kissinger, Walter Frasier, Ruby Cornutt, Larinda Craig, Roy McPherrin, Nellie Rigney, Marie Medsker, Mable Neal, Nellie Knapperberger, Holly Ford, Ernest Coler, Abner Johnson, Elmer Montgomery, Edna Moore, Neva Sage, Lois Farmer, Howard Leech.

Now that the basket ball season is in its last stages, the boys of the athletic association are looking forward to training for the annual track meet, which will be held here in the last week of April. If the weather continues favorable the members will start their road work next week, for they have been doing light work in the gym for some time. The prospects for a winning team are very bright this year, for the squad will be unusually large, and will be under the direction of two experienced athletes, Prof. Westbrook and Prof. Israel.

Perry's Old Flagship Raised.
Erie, Pa., March 7.—Commodore Perry's old flagship, the Niagara, which for almost a century has rested at the bottom of Misery bay, an arm of Lake Erie, was raised to the surface. pontoons were placed beneath the old warship and as soon as a channel can be cut through the ice it will be towed to this city. The timbers were found to be in a good state of preservation.

Ryan Re-elected President of Union.
Indianapolis, March 7.—Frank M. Ryan of Chicago, one of the labor leaders convicted in the dynamite conspiracy trials here, was re-elected president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron workers at its sessions here.

A $10,000 Fire at Linn Creek.
Linn Creek, Mo., March 7.—The L. F. King building, containing Baker's general store and the Linn Creek telephone exchange, burned, together with the Linn Creek Mercantile warehouse. The mercantile store building sustained damage of $1,500. The total loss was $10,000.

Ice Men in Session.
Kansas City, March 7.—Several hundred delegates from Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas were present at the opening session of the annual convention of the Southwestern Ice Manufacturers' association.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles."

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

HEROIC CAPTAIN LOSES HIS LIFE

Master of Tug Returns to Steamer to Save Seamen.

EXPLOSION CATCHES RESCUERS

Dynamite in Hold of British Steamer Lets Go and Half Hundred Men Lose Lives—Three Score More Wounded, Many Fatally.

Baltimore, March 8.—Three hundred tons of dynamite being loaded in the British tramp steamer Alum Chine, in the lower harbor, off Fort Howard, exploded, instantly killing from forty to fifty men, wounding and maiming three score more, some of whom may die, and dealing destruction to $500,000 worth of property.

The Alum Chine and a loading scow alongside it were completely annihilated; the tug Atlantic, which twice went to the rescue of imperiled seamen, was set on fire and later sank; the collier Jacon, just completed and ready for trial, was raked to its deck and its plates riddled, and buildings in Baltimore and cities and towns many miles away were rocked by the force of the terrific explosion.

The cause of the disaster has not been learned, but federal authorities have instituted a thorough investigation to place the blame.

Excited survivors told conflicting stories, some insisting that a negro stevedore caused the explosion by jamming a pipe into a case of dynamite. This is denied by eye-witnesses, who declared that smoke was seen pouring from the Alum Chine's hold several minutes before the explosion occurred.

Twenty Bodies Recovered.

The bodies of twenty dead have been brought to morgues in this city and sixty injured are in the hospitals. The estimates of the dead included thirty stevedores and checkers of the Joseph R. Board company, employed in transferring dynamite from a barge to the Alum Chine, which was bound for Panama; eight members of the crew of the Alum Chine, six men on the collier Jacon and the captain and several members of the crew of the tug Atlantic.

Many bodies, it is believed, never will be recovered from the icy waters. Of the injured a score are frightfully mutilated. At least fifteen are expected to die.

Among the dead who have been identified are: Captain William Van Dyke of the tug Atlantic; Robert W. Diggs, first mate of the tug Atlantic; Edward Watters, chief officer of the Alum Chine.

Captain Van Dyke of the wrecked tug Atlantic lost his life heroically rushing to the aid of the imperiled British seamen on the doomed Alum Chine and in his effort carried with him to death many members of his crew.

200 Drown When Steamer Sinks.

Constantinople, March 8.—Two hundred passengers and the members of the crew of the small British steamer Calvados were drowned when the steamer foundered in the sea of Marmora in a blizzard.

OPIUM RING BROKEN UP

Custom Agents End Career of Band of Smugglers.

Portland, Ore., March 8.—So carefully planned that one smuggler knew scarcely any of the others in it, the biggest opium ring discovered on the Pacific coast in recent years is being broken up by customs agents.

Cities in which agents of the ring were active were said by federal officers to be San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane, Butte, Salt Lake, Chicago and New York on this side of the border, and Victoria and Vancouver in British Columbia, and a supply station at Honolulu.

Samuel Hausmann of Seattle, who was ostensibly engaged in the real estate business, was arrested in Honolulu on Feb. 7 with a large quantity of opium in his possession.

Three arrests followed in Portland and customs agents said they have a confession which explains in full the workings of the ring.

Those arrested were: John W. Rogers, Charlie Looney, a prominent Chinaman of Seattle, and a young woman, who gave her name as Marion Bergman.

Greeks Held 78,000 Turks.

Athens, Greece, March 8.—The Greek military authorities declared that they have 78,450 Turkish prisoners, including the troops who surrendered at Janina, while 20,000 others are surrounded at various places. As a reason for demanding an indemnity from Turkey the Greek government points out that the maintenance of the prisoners already has involved the expenditure of $1,000,000.

Will Soon Discuss Home Rule Again.

London, March 8.—The British parliament was prorogued for one of the shortest recesses in its history. It is to reassemble on Monday for another of the busy sessions for which the Liberal government has become famous. The home rule bill, the Welsh disestablishment bill and a few minor measures, to which the lords refused assent, will have to be reintroduced and repassed.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE

HOPE FOR THE SODOMITES.

Genesis 19:12-17, 23-29—March 9.
"Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch no unclean thing."—2 Corinthians 6:17.

WHEN Abraham was ninety-nine years old—in 2021 B. C.—his encampment was at Hebron. There the Lord and two angels appeared to him as men. He knew them not, but entertained them. (Hebrews 13:2.) The one called the Lord was doubtless the Logos, subsequently man's Redeemer. The Lord on this occasion told Abraham that Ishmael would not be the heir of the Promise, but that shortly Sarah would have a son. The next year Isaac was born.

As Abraham walked a little distance with his visitors, he learned who they really were, and that the destruction of Sodom was imminent. Nobly and generously he petitioned God's Mercy on the Sodomites. The Lord gave assurance that if there were even ten righteous in Sodom, it would be spared.

Thus of the Sodomites and the "Sarah shall have a son."

made illustrations of the great lesson, "All the wicked will He destroy." We are to remember that these are not illustrations of eternal torment, but of destruction. These merely passed into destruction a few years sooner than ordinarily; for the death sentence passed upon humanity in Adam. But since "Jesus Christ by the grace of God tasted death for every man," all of Adam's children will eventually come from the tomb.

"And Delivered Righteous Lot."

St. Peter informs us that Lot was not in sympathy with his surroundings. (2 Peter 2:7, 8.) The flight of Lot, with his wife and two unmarried daughters, is simply told in our lesson. The intimation of verse 29 is that God's Mercy toward Lot was because of his relationship to Abraham. This view is consistent with all Scriptural statements on the subject.

Adam's entire race was condemned to death in him. Hence Divine Justice owed them nothing. Divine Mercy had entered into a special Covenant with Abraham, but that Covenant extended to none others, except Abraham's seed. Therefore Lot's relationship to Abraham was the only reason why God should favor him.

"There's a Witness in God's Mercy."

This does not signify that God is merciless, but that, having provided a way by which He will exercise Mercy, He rarely exercises it outside of that channel. The channel of God's Mercy is Christ Jesus, who declared, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me." St. Peter substantiates this statement. See Acts 4:12. The Scriptures clearly teach that none were saved until Jesus died. This is the key which unlocks the wonders of God's grace even though to some the statement may seem astounding.

We should rid ourselves of the thought that the holy men of the past went to Heaven, and the remainder of mankind to eternal torture. The Bible most distinctly declares that all, both good and bad, "sleep with their fathers." They still sleep, awaiting the time when Abraham's Seed (Galatians 3:16, 29) will be completed, and set up God's Kingdom on earth, overthrow sin and death, and deliver the captives from the tomb.

The First, or Chief Resurrection.

The First Resurrection began with our Lord Jesus and is not yet complete; for all the Elect are to share both His sacrificial death and His Resurrection. These will reign with Christ a thousand years, and as the Seed of Abraham, fully empowered, will bless all those redeemed by the precious blood of Calvary.—Revelation 20:4.

St. Paul emphasizes this point in Hebrews 11:38-40, declaring that while the Ancient Worthies received indications of God's favors, nevertheless that favor can come only through Christ. Consequently they cannot reach everlasting life until the Spiritual Seed of Abraham shall have been completed.

Jesus also attested that they had not gone to Heaven, saying, "No man hath ascended up to Heaven."—John 3:13.

Hope For the Sodomites.

The hope for the Sodomites is exactly the same as that for the remainder of mankind. The hope of the world is the Messianic Kingdom, and the deliverance from sin and death which it will effect. The basis of hope for both Church and world is the one sacrifice at Calvary.

Jesus declares that it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the Judgment Day (the thousand years of His reign) than for those of His day who rejected Him. This clearly shows that the fate of the Sodomites is not sealed. We also find abundant testimony in Ezekiel 16:46-63 that the Sodomites will be awakened from death and brought to a knowledge of God and to an opportunity of obtaining human perfection and everlasting life through the Messiah—the Seed of Abraham—by willing obedience to the laws of the Messianic Kingdom.

MOST TIMELY HELP

How a Nyctalops Repaid a Favor Shown Him by a Young Bank Clerk.

By FLORENCE LILLIAN HENDERSON.

With the magic of a smile Walter Davis ruled all the little world of Millville. He had started in at the bank as messenger, and at twenty-two bright, intelligent, energetic, had worked his way into the favor of every person connected with that institution from the president down to the janitor—save one.

The exception was Bruce Lowell. He seemed always to have envied Walter his rapid advancement and popularity. He was a dark-skinned, sinister-looking man, secretive and surly. If the light-hearted Walter had more closely scanned the surface of affairs he would have noticed that Lowell scowled at him most particularly when he was in the company of Viola Morton, the daughter of the president of the bank and the belle of the town.

Walter was always doing kind things and making other people happy. It was no marvel to anybody, therefore, when one day, going home to supper from the bank, he stopped to speak to a blind man slowly making his way along the street.

"Can I help you, friend?" inquired Walter, in his warm-hearted, impulsive way.

"Why, yes," replied the beggar. "I want to be set right on the road to Clyde."

"Why, that is fully ten miles away, and darkness will overtake you before you reach your destination," observed Walter.

"Oh, I'm all right in the dark," rather enigmatically explained the blind man.

"Why don't you take the train?" asked Walter.

"Because I have no money," was the blunt response.

"But I have, and there you are!" cried Walter, handing the mendicant

a two-dollar bill. "Keep right on as you are headed, and you'll reach the depot."

"Hold on," spoke the blind man, with a queer grateful catch in his voice. "A little silver will do."

"No, no—you are welcome to what I have given you," declared Walter. "I can spare it."

"I want to know your name, anyhow," persisted the mendicant.

"Walter Davis."

"I'll remember it. This is the most timely help I have ever received."

"Glad of it," said Walter heartily, and went on his way, immediately forgetting his kind deed, but followed by the ardently-expressed wishes of his pensioner that "he would have all kinds of good luck."

The parting benison of the blind man, however, did not follow out. Instead, bad luck, indeed, came to the young bank clerk. The following day the manager of the bank called him into his private office, serious-faced and somewhat distant in his manner.

"Davis," he said, "I am sorry to tell you that you will have to take a leave of absence until the return of the president of the bank, Mr. Morton."

"Why, what does this mean?" exclaimed Walter, staring vaguely.

"Just this: Only yourself and Mr. Morton have keys to the bank. Coming from another town late in the morning, I have found no use for one. Last night some one entered the bank and removed the money and notes we keep in the cashier's box. It is not usually locked up in the vault, as the sum it holds is generally small. However, the notes and some two hundred dollars are missing."

"Do you dare—" began Walter, flaring up instantly, but the manager silenced him with the words:

"No one suspects you, but the bank directors hold you responsible as the possessor of a key to the institution. They demand an investigation, and your temporary resignation until Mr. Morton returns."

The matter was plainly put and Walter could not rebel. The story got about town. No one accused him openly, but there were hinted suspicions, and to say the least he felt uncomfortable.

Old Mr. Morton was a crabbed, suspicious man, and Walter wondered how Viola would take it. He went to a lawyer, but the latter advised him not to stir things up.

Walter kept up a brave front. In no time armed him against real fretting, and hope made him cheery and bright as usual.

"I have good news for you," announced his lawyer, appearing at the Davis home just after dusk one evening. He was quite excited, and he had a companion at whom Walter glanced curiously and then recognized.

"Why, I've seen you before," said Walter.

"Yes, you gave me some help about a week ago," replied the blind man.

"I happened in town today. I learned of your trouble and I found your lawyer. You called me 'friend'—do you remember?" asked the mendicant, with a noticeable huskiness in his throat.

"Well, aren't we friends?" smiled Walter.

"I'm going to prove it. Go ahead, Mr. Lawyer. You've described that fellow, Lowell. He tallies. Give me a sight of him."

"What's that? A sight of him?" cried Walter.

"You will understand later, Walter," promised the lawyer. "Just run us against Lowell, some way."

Walter felt that there was something mysterious in the proceedings. He noted also that the blind man accompanied them at quite a brisk gait and without guidance.

It was a moonless night. Suddenly, as they turned a corner, they came face to face with Bruce Lowell, strolling along by himself. The blind man took a step forward, bent his glance on the approaching figure, and cried out sharply.

"That is the man!"

"You are positive?" questioned the lawyer.

"I'd swear to him anywhere," avowed the mendicant. "That man was one of two men whom I saw enter the bank at midnight on the night of the robbery. His companion unhinged one of the iron gratings and forced up a window. The fellow with him had a wooden leg."

"Hello! hello! hello!" exclaimed the lawyer in three different tones of voice, evincing in turn wonder, suspicion and then triumph. "You didn't tell me that before. You have given me a final clue."

"What is this nonsense?" demanded Lowell indignantly, but pale and trembling.

"This man identifies you as one of the bank robbers," he says," replied the lawyer.

"Why! but he is blind," exclaimed Walter.

"Yes, day times," said the mendicant. "I am what is called a nyctalops—I can see at night."

The next morning the lawyer, Walter and the mendicant had an interview with the bank manager. Then the lawyer made a hurried visit to a neighboring town.

He had remembered that Lowell had a relative there, an ex-convict, who had but one leg. The man confessed to the crime when he learned that otherwise both he and Lowell would be arrested.

Lowell was given his walking papers and disappeared. Somehow the story got out. When the banker and his daughter returned to Millville, it was to learn the whole story. Against his wishes Walter had been put up as a candidate for a public office, and was more popular than ever.

"You seem always making people happy," said Viola a few evenings later, referring to the blind man whom Walter had sent again on his way rejoicing. "I wish I was as fortunate as you."

"Do you really?" asked Walter earnestly. "Then begin the good work, by telling me that you will make me the happiest of men by returning my love."

"Oh, Walter," confessed Viola impulsively. "I did that long ago!"

Marking of Sheep.

Means prevailing at present for marking sheep for the purpose of identification is unsatisfactory for the reason that the coal tar or pitch solution which is made use of has a serious effect on the wool, not only where the mark has been made on the hair but all that which is being put through the cleansing process at that time. Such wool brings a decreased price. The National Society of Agriculture of France has been investigating the matter, and the report of those appointed to do the work contains the following: It has been proposed to use aniline colors, but this is even worse, since the colors do not merely soil the fleece, but actually dye it. Other means are not lacking, notably that of tattooing the ear of the sheep. Also, a small metallic plate can be fastened in the ear, as is done with African sheep to prove that they have been "clavellized," i. e., inoculated with the special serum which combats their dangerous eruptive malady, rot or scab. The syndical chamber of commerce and industry advises the employment of a color composed of linseed oil, essence of turpentine and Prussian blue or similar color. It recommends marking on nose, forehead or nape of neck.

When the Principal Fainted.

A certain school principal was very busy into the office came a tiny, eager-faced lad who respectfully asked leave to put "an important question."

"I've studied and studied about it, and I can't find any answer in the books," he explained.

"All right, John," replied the principal. "Go ahead."

And this was John's problem:

"Please tell me, if you had fleas on you and you had a shock of electricity sufficient to kill you, would it kill the fleas?"

THIS FENCE DIFFERENT

Our customers who have used Apex Fences don't want any other now.

Apex has all the best features of good fencing:

Open Hearth Steel Wire
Thorough Galvanizing
Guaranteed Stock-Proof Construction
Firm, Rigid Stays which Hogs can't bend up at the bottom.

But, besides all these good points, Apex has two distinct features which other fences lack. The "swinging joint" makes it the only perfectly adjustable fence to all hilly and sloping land. That saves you time, trouble and labor, and is worth money to you.

The stays of Apex are reinforced to "double strength" at every joint. At that point they are heavier than the stays of any other fence.

Don't buy another rod of fence till we have shown you the big advantages of the Apex line.

Another Boost for Poultry.

The poultry department at the University of Missouri has been informed that the food research laboratory of the bureau of chemistry heretofore located at Nashville, Tenn., and under the direction of Dr. Mary E. Pennington and Prof. H. C. Pierce, is to be removed to Sedalia, Mo. The work of this laboratory consists of studying the marketing of eggs and poultry from the producer to the consumer.

There is a great need of such work in Missouri. A conservative estimate places the loss in eggs during a single year at $3,000,000. A large percentage of this loss is borne by the farmer and the loss is due to the average low quality of eggs and the consequent low prices.

One of the first steps will be to organize the dealers in the state to buy eggs on a quality basis. The elimination of bad eggs at the receiving station, where it has been tried in this state, results in an increase in the price of eggs of 3 cents per dozen. This means that the producer of poor eggs pays the penalty and the producer of good eggs reaps the reward. It is only on this basis that the egg industry in Missouri can approach its possibilities, and Missouri is to be congratulated on having the laboratory within its boundaries.

The story the bank book tells

There is no more interesting reading than the credit pages in your bank book, telling you the sum that is held subject to your order. Your success is measured by the figures in your bank book. If you have a bank account which is growing every month, you are on the royal road to success.

Employers are quick to learn of the fellow with a bank book and he is the man they look to first when responsible positions are open.

HE SAVED HIS FRIEND

In Fact, Two Friends Were Saved From Impending but Different Disasters.

By CECILLE LANGDON.

"It is certainly very mysterious," said Mrs. Little. "Bruno is acting so strangely I cannot account for it at all."

"It is worse than mysterious—it is positively heartbreaking!" said Ina Dawes, but she said it to herself.

"Everything was going so lovely," continued the little widow. "I invited you down here Bruno, as my heart dearly wished, was more than attentive to you. His friend, Jack Lowry, came on. Then Beatrice Dale has that stately Miss Vavasour visit her. Right away, too, Bruno neglects you and becomes devoted to Miss Vavasour.
Poor Jack, the rejected, is inconsolable and you, my dear—"

"Don't think of me, my friend," said Ina bravely. "I am afraid I attached too much weight to your brother's—flirting."

"But Bruno was not flirting," dis-claimed Mrs. Little solemnly. "I know he wasn't."

"Then?"
"That Miss Vavasour has simply hypnotized him with her queenly ways and really handsome face. He will come back to his first allegiance.
Trust me."

It was certainly a complex and dilmal situation at Poplar Grove, the pretty country home of the fashionable widow, Mrs. Little. Life had gone like a beautiful dream for Ina, until this stately Miss Vavasour had appeared on the scene. At first Jack, the enthralled, had been her ardent knight errant. Then Bruno had supplanted him unmistakably in the affections of the new brilliant star.

Ina left her friend and old college companion, and walked pensively through the garden towards the river.
She sighed as she saw a dolorousfaced gentleman pacing a densely

"Even She Does Not Look Happy," Reflected Ina.

shaded by path. It was Jack Lowry, usually the soul of cheerfulness. Ina reflected that this wilful, coquette Miss Vavasour had a good deal to answer for in distracting the happiness of others.

Sweet Ina was deeply hurt. Bruno Moore had certainly taken a step beyond mere friendship in those first days of her stay at Poplar Grove.
Even now when they met there was a latent fondness in his eyes for her, and a loyal expression of regard in his treatment of his oldest chum, Jack. Yet all his spare time was devoted to Miss Vavasour, so what could they think except that his real interest was centered in the new beauty?

Ina strolled along rather dejectedly until she reached the rustic bridge spanning the river. She sat down near some bushes on the bank. Then she idly watched a new comer on the scene. This was Beatrice Dale. The latter stood leaning and half seated on the frail railing that protected the bridge.

"Even she does not look happy," reflected Ina. "They say she was at one time very much in love with Bruno. Ah, me!" and the little maid sighed, and half wished she had never come away from the serene home where she had never so much as heard of such a thing as heartbreak.

Suddenly there was a crackling sound upon the still air, a shriek and a splash. Miss Dale had infringed too fully upon the integrity of the flimsy bridge rail. It had given way, and she was precipitated into the water ten feet below. The startled Ina noticed that she landed sideways against one of the extending timber supports of the bridge. Stunned and helpless, she sank; she came to the surface again, but limp and lifeless.

Ina was a superb swimmer, for she had been brought up in a seaport town. She was soon in the water. She could not, however, sustain the dead weight of the insensible girl and swim to shore. Fortunately, after drifting twenty feet, she neared a wire running to a timber under the bridge.
clung to it, holding the rescued girl out of the water, and screamed for help.

It was Jack Lowry who finally appeared. He soon had both girls safe on the bank. It was Jack who carried Miss Dale to her home. The next day Ina received a note from Miss Dale asking her to call upon her at once.

Ina found Jack seated on the porch of the Dale home. He flushed a trifle as he saw Ina, mumbled some excuse about an engagement, and the two girls were alone.

"I have something to say to you, Miss Dawes," began Beatrice in a tremulous tone. "You saved my life yesterday."

"Brave Jack"—began Ina.

"No, you. I have something to confess to you, something I feel very sorry for, now that I see how unhappy
I have made you—you, who have done so much for me. I sent purposely for my friend, Miss Vavasour, to win the love of Bruno Moore away from you, because I was jealous and wicked."

Beatrice was crying by the time she got through with her humiliating confession. Ina smiled sadly and stroked her hand reassuringly.

"Never mind, dear," she said cour-ageously. "If Miss Vavasour is Bruno's fate, let us wish him all due happiness."

"But she can never make him happy!" cried the wretched Beatrice.
"She is false-hearted, a coquette. She has told me that it is only money and position she is after. Oh! why did I act out this wilful, wicked plot? Why have I destroyed the love and peace of others!"

However, one good result came out of it all. Jack seemed now attracted to the really pretty Beatrice, and the latter began to wear a happier face.
One evening Bruno came into the garden, where his sister and Ina were seated engaged in some fancy work.

"Well," he announced, "I have just seen Miss Vavasour homeward bound on the train—thank goodness!"

His sister stared at him and Ina felt a new throbbing at her heart.
Bruno had brought a chair close to her side.

"Why do you say that, Bruno?" inquired Mrs. Little.

"Because I am truly thankful, indeed. Miss Vavasour's sister sent for her and now—a happy return to the dear old times," cried Bruno joyously.

"Ina, will you take a stroll with me?"
"Do you not think a few explanations are in order first, brother?" inquired Mrs. Little, rather coldly.

"That's deserved—why, certainly!"
replied Bruno, in his usual bluff, jolly tone. "I have hurried back here fast as I could purposely to explain to both of you that my horrible conduct—"

His sister groaned.

"My 'undying devotion' to Miss Va-vasour—"

Ina sighed.

"Was all a game."

"A game?" repeated Mrs. Little wonderingly.

"Yes. The first night Miss Vavasour arrived," said Bruno, "poor Jack fell head over heels in love with her.
I saw his danger, for I had heard of her in the city as a heartless, calculating coquette. To save Jack I devoted my time to Miss Vavasour. She has gone home somewhat soured, and I fancy has half guessed my plot to save a soft but noble hearted friend from the wiles of a siren. Ina, will you come for that stroll?"

"Yes, Bruno," responded Ina gladly.

"I will go—now."

They met two other strollers in their progress—Jack and Beatrice—and when the happy-faced couples came in to tea a little later, observant Mrs. Little knew that there would soon be some interesting announcements.

GIRLS IN CANADIAN STORES

In City of Montreal Only Three Per Cent. Were Not Compelled to Labor for Livelihood.

The claim so often made that girls in department stores do not require a living wage, because they are living at home, has been punctured again by an interesting research made by Montreal young women, says the Survey. An association of department store girls organized for semi-religious and semi-educational purposes, conducted an investigation for the child welfare exhibition now in progress in Montreal. They secured responsible young women in each of the stores to make the rounds of their associations. The questionnaire was of the briefest possible kind, prepared by the director of the child welfare exhibition and adapted to amateurs.

The result showed that out of the 8,471 women employed in eleven stores in the city:

Seven per cent. were the sole support of their family.

Sixty per cent. were aiding in the family support.

Thirty per cent. were living alone and supporting themselves.

Three per cent. worked only for pin money or clothing, making no contribution to the finances of the home.

The fact that a girl is living at home may mean that she is protected in her recreations and social engagements, but these Montreal figures add to the cumulative evidence that it does not mean that she can depend upon others for her support and thus work for less than a living wage.

Vetoed.

"What's the missus kicking about?"
inquired the housemaid from next door.

"This is her night out, but I told her I had an engagement meself."

The Idea.

"Why do you laugh at the idea of moving pictures of germs?"

"I can't help it. It sounds so bac-tially."

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN.

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N.
J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol.
It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee.

BANQUET LAST NIGHT.

Did You Eat Too Much, Drink Too Much, Smoke Too Much?

It takes a mighty good stomach to feel ready for breakfast the morning after the banquet or social session.

"What do you want for breakfast?"
inquired Brown's good wife.

"Just a pleasant smile and a breath of fresh air," answered Brown the morning after an important meeting.

If you eat, smoke or drink too much, remember that two little MI-O-NA Stomach Tablets taken just before you go to bed and will stop fermentation and leave you with a sweet, clean stomach and clear head in the morning.

For indigestion and all stomach dis-

CREDIT IS CRAIG'S

VICTORY IN HARDEST FOUGHT BATTLE IN SENATE HISTORY.

IS MUCH SOUGHT AFTER

No Other Senator Has So Many Vices, and Congratulations Come to Him From All Over State.

(By William Job.)

Jefferson City, March 7.—I see by the paper Northwest Missouri is covered over with snow. We have no snow down here. I often wonder if it would be this way in off years, when the assembly is not in session. I can account for it now. So much hot air, "don't you know." It has been unusually warm around the capitol of late. There has been something doing; in fact, there has been something doing all the time. It has been a long time since so many important measures have been before the assembly and passed upon, and there are more coming.

The county unit bill occupied the time of the senate Wednesday afternoon. We engrossers worked overtime and cleaned up our docket by noon, locked up the office and took a half day off for the first time in six weeks, and joined the crowd that filled the senate gallery and all the space in the senate chamber outside the railing.

Owing to the fact that Lieutenant Governor Painter was acting as governor during the temporary absence from the state of Governor Major, Senator Wilson of Platte county presided. Immediately after Senator Craig called up the county unit bill and stated the object and purpose of it, Senator Gardner of St. Louis county, the Republican floor leader, moved to amend it so that cities and towns of 4,000 inhabitants and over might vote on the question separately from the county. On this amendment the debate begun and the fur began to fly. The wets chose well when they offered the amendment through Senator Gardner. He is an able man and a good speaker. He was assisted by Senators Whitledge of St. Genevieve, White of Lynn, Casey of Jackson and Brunk of St. Louis. Senator Craig opposed the amendment, made a strong speech in opposition to it and was assisted by Senators Carter of Clark, McClintic of Monroe, Crossley of Johnson and Cain of Stoddard. Several others came into the fight for a time, among them being Hawkins of Dunklin, who only a short time ago made a grandstand play in the senate lobby and the lobby at the Madison house as to what he was going to do for an editor who had placed him on the wet side. When he was on the floor in support of the amendment and tried to answer the questions put to him by Senator Craig he got himself so badly mixed it was hard to tell what he was trying to get at. When the amendment was put on roll call the vote stood 16 to 16. President Pro Tem. Wilson was thus forced to cast the deciding vote, which he cast against the amendment, thus forcing the senate to go on record on a strict county unit bill.

Senator Craig immediately called the bill for final passage and the vote stood 20 for to 12 against. Senators White, Allee, Baldwin and Cates, who had voted for the amendment, voted for the bill on its final passage. After making the argument some of them did in favor of the amendment, I would have to have done so myself, but they couldn't afford to go home and face their constituents with a record of that kind. Hawkins of Dunklin and Whitledge of St. Genevieve were the only votes cast against it from country districts.

I see in the St. Louis Republic a statement giving Charles M. Hay of Callaway county the lion's share of the glory. I regard Charles M. Hay by far the most able man in the house of representatives. He has no superior and I doubt very much if he has an equal. But Mr. Hay, in handling that measure in that body, had easy sailing. It was overwhelmingly in favor of it, while two years ago Mr. Craig handled that measure in the house and succeeded in passing it when it looked like sure defeat. Senator Craig deserves the credit for winning the hardest fought battle that has ever been won on the floor of the state senate of Missouri. From the time this bill was reported out of the committee adversely last Monday until its final passage in the senate it was entirely in his hands. Every move that was made in the management of the bill in the senate was made at his decision. He listened to advice and information from all the leaders of the dries, but he decided the final action and took it. He conducted himself two years ago in this same fight and at this time throughout as a perfect gentleman. He has the respect of every member of the forty-seventh assembly. This and other measures that have a tendency to better the morals of our state has won for him congratulations from over the entire state. There is not a chair in the Missouri state senate that is visited by as many people as that of Senator Craig. Mr. Craig is like all men who try to accomplish something in the community in which he lives and has his own interests in trade and traffic to look after. We all bump up against people that don't see and think as we do. The man that has never made an enemy in his community has done but very little progressively, let that be as it may.

Senator Craig has made a record in the forty-seventh assembly that every man, woman and child in the first senatorial district ought to be proud of. I only have this to say to you, who may be harboring some little jealousy or spite in your craw, get it out and lend your influence to help him in his efforts to make a better Missouri morally. I am proud that I am a representative of his on the clerical force, but very sorry, indeed, that my personal appearance just at this time is not in keeping with the temperance question. I have a boil on my nose.

SECONDS RALLIED AND WON.

Normal Reserves Overcame 19-9 Lead and Beat Albany High 31-27—Eck and Taylor Starred.

With the score 19 to 9 against them at the end of the first half, the Normal seconds rallied in the final period and defeated the Albany high school five in a fast game of basket ball Friday night at the Normal gymnasium. The final count was 31 to 27.

The locals played a very loose defensive game in the first half, but they tightened up in the last half and held the enemy to eight points. Coach Moore shifted Eck to center and Watson to forward in the second half, and this proved a winning combination.

Eck and Taylor played the best game for the Normal, while Parmon at center and Gill at guard were the best performers for the enemy. Burkhardt, the other Albany guard, is the chap who set a new mark for the district in the 1912 track meet here. Degginger, the Albany captain, is undoubtedly the biggest grandstander who ever performed on the local court. He amused the fans by his numerous attempts for goal from anywhere on the court he happened to gain possession of the sphere, and he finally caged a long one, seemingly much to his own satisfaction.

The seconds will probably play a return game at Albany next week.

The line-up: Albany—Forwards, Degginger, Stapleton and Graham; center, Parmon; guards, Burkhardt and Gill.

Normal seconds—Forwards, La Mar, Eck and Brittain; center, Quinn and Eck; guards, Taylor and Brittain.

Referee—Thornton, Albany.

Umpire—Vandersloot, Maryville.

In a preliminary contest Prof. Cameron's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church defeated H. J. Becker's class of the Christian church by a score of 16 to 10. John Carter Taylor was the official.

Met With Accident.

Mrs. James McGinnis, who lives three miles north of Bedison, met with a very painful accident Friday when she fell in the yard near her home and broke the wrist bone of her right hand. The fractured member was set by Dr. Todd of Maryville.

TO START PAVING THE BAND IS HOME

CITY ATTORNEY INSTRUCTED TO DRAFT ORDINANCE.

AFTER SIDEWALKS, TOO

Report of Water Department for January and February Shows Surplus—Phillips' Contract Approved.

At the council meeting Friday evening, held in the new city quarters in the Baker building, this being their first meeting there, the paving campaign was started when City Attorney Wiles was instructed to draft an ordinance ordering property holders to pave North Market street between First and Third, Fifth street between Buchanan and Market, and two alleys, one between Main and Market, and Fourth and Fifth streets, and the other between Main and Market and Second and Third streets. A remonstrance petition can be filed and one will probably be filed against paving these streets by the property owners.

The council also intends to start their sidewalk campaign, and the street committee with the street commissioner and city engineer will make an inspection trip over the city the next week to look over all sidewalks and crossings. All of the defective sidewalks and bad crossings will be reported by the committee at their next meeting, to be held March 17. Steps will then be taken ordering these property holders to build new sidewalks.

The contract of the board of public works with Hiram Phillips was approved by the council. The contract calls for hiring Phillips as engineer and for him to suggest what improvements are necessary, and other plans.

Henry Foster, who has been alderman from the First ward, attended his last meeting Friday night. He is to move from that ward to the Fourth ward the coming week. Mayor Robey will appoint some one to take his place for the next month, as his term will expire in April at the city election. Other aldermen whose terms will be out in April are C. D. Hooker from the Second, John Gray from the Third and Louis Gram from the Fourth. The city election is to be held on Tuesday, April 1, and no other city officers are to be voted on.

According to the report of Superintendent Lou Denny of the city water plant the receipts of the plant exceeded the disbursements in January and February. The city has had charge of the water plant for two months. For January the receipts were $1,525.27, and the disbursements were $1,254.80, leaving cash on hand at the end of the month of $270.47, including in the disbursements $355.90 spent for fuel, $223.35 for general supplies, $37.62 for repairs. For February the receipts were $1,180.42, and the disbursements were $1,054.02, leaving a balance on hand at the end of the month of $126.40. Also there are delinquent receipts of $173.03, which have not been collected. The big item in the disbursements in February was for fuel, which amounted to $625.88.

Washington Papers Published Complimentary Notices—All Are Worn Out From Strenuous Week.

Miss Alma Nash and her Missouri Ladies Military band arrived in Maryville at 6 o'clock Saturday morning on the Wabash, worn out, sleeping and tired from the most strenuous week of excitement and sight-seeing they have ever known. The part they took in the suffragist parade in Washington last Monday, March 3, preceding the inauguration, is not yet fully realized by them.

"Everything went so fast, there were so many people, so many beautiful things to see and all that we have not yet had time to stop and think about what a really important thing we did do when our band led the parade down Pennsylvania avenue," Miss Nash said this morning. Miss Nash, continuing, said:

"We were not right in the lead when the parade started, because a mounted escort of women with a number of officers of the National Equal Suffrage association walking behind, with our band following, was the order in which we first started. We had gone but a short distance, however, when the crowd began closing up toward the line of the parade, and men were blocking a place in the street a short distance ahead, when one of the suffragist officers came rushing back to us and told us to march on ahead and lead, and that it would be necessary for the band to open the way, which proved true. We were not molested in the least, and although the march was slow on account of the great crowds, no one offered to stand in our way down the avenue.

"A picture of our band was taken as we were marching past the Peace monument by a Washington Star reporter, and after a cut was made from the picture, which appeared in that evening's paper, the photographer presented it to me."

All of the Washington city papers spoke in the most complimentary terms of the ladies band, and published several pictures of them while marching.

Several members of the band stopped in St. Louis on their way home for a few days' visit. Miss Helen Rowley and Miss Gertrude Kirch are guests of Miss Rowley's grandmother, Mrs. S. J. Rowley, and Misses Sebec and May Rowley. Miss Kirch will return Monday, while Miss Rowley will continue her visit two weeks. Miss Anna Dougan stopped at St. Louis for a visit with relatives, and Mrs. Velma Gray Johnson stopped at St. Charles to visit her sister-in-law, Dr. Gertrude DuVall, and Miss Cornelia Hurst. The other members of the band who returned home Saturday morning are: Misses Grace and Mary O'Brien, Hazel Garrett, Mary Q. Evans, Velma Lanning, Lela Caudle, Mrs. Del Thompson, Myrtle Lanning, Ora Quinn, Helene Young, Hazel Vandervort, Margaret Conway, May Shipp, Florence Shipp, Orleana Helphy, Elizabeth Nash, Selma Young, Esther Eversole, Miss Alma Nash and Mrs. G. A. Nash, who chaperoned the party.

DEATH OF YOUNG MAN.

Raymond Mikelson Passed Away Saturday Morning, After Week's Illness of Pneumonia.

Raymond Dale Mikelson, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Mikelson, living southeast of Maryville, near Bedison, died Saturday forenoon at 11:40 o'clock, after a week's illness of pneumonia.

The funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Swinford church, one mile east of the Mikelson home, and will be conducted by Rev. Claude J. Miller.

The young man was 16 years old February 2 last. He is survived by his parents, a sister, Ermil May Mikelson, and two brothers, Jesse Lee and Racie Mikelson, all younger than the deceased, who was born on the farm on which he died.

SENATOR, STONE THE TARGET.

Senior Senator's Course Caused Attack by Paper Which Was Censured by State Senate.

Jefferson City, March 7.—An effort by Republican members to "smoke out" the Missouri senate as to its attitude toward United States Senator William Joel Stone was successful today and all of the Democratic senators, some of them against their will, were forced to vote on a resolution condemning a St. Louis publication for criticizing the senior senator from Missouri.

A roll call was demanded and every member of the upper house save two, Craig of Maryville and Cain of Bloomfield, voted for the resolution.

The journal publishing the offensive article is a "dry" sheet called "The American Issue." It contained a Washington dispatch, in which it referred to Senator Stone as "a blind pig senator," because he voted against the Webb bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into prohibition states. The names of the senators who voted against the measure were printed under the subhead, "Blacklisting of Blind Pig Senators." In the list Stone's name appeared.

Inasmuch as Stone is to become a candidate for re-election in about fourteen months, and as most of the state senators are Major Democrats, the situation was painful.

The resolution was introduced by Senator Thomas B. Whitledge, Republican, of St. Mary's. It referred to the fact that copies of The American Issue containing the article had been placed on the desk of every senator. It recited that the article is an insult, not only to Senator Stone but to the whole people of the state, and concluded thus:

"Therefore, be it resolved, That it is hereby denounced and condemned."

He made an impassioned speech in support of the resolution.

Then came Senator A. E. L. Gardner of St. Louis, another Republican, who eloquently defended Stone, and denounced the paper that had maligned him.

Senator Bronson of Ozark, Republican, was grieved and shocked. He said the editor of a journal that would print such infamy should be deported to a leper colony. "William Joel Stone is nothing to me, politically," he said. "But he is my United States senator."

Then the Democratic senators had their inning. Senator Crossley, Democrat, of Warrensburg thought there was no occasion to get excited about the matter. Senator Carter, Democrat, of Clark county said: "I don't think we should stop the wheels of legislation to adopt this resolution. But what does nettles me is the fact that our Republican friends assume a sort of guardianship over the Democratic party."

Senator Craig, Democrat, of Maryville favored referring the resolution to a committee. "I think we'll make a mistake if we pass it," he said.

Other comments were:

Senator McClintic, Democrat: "I don't indorse the published article, but I deprecate the resolution."

Senator Allee, a Democrat: "I would not have introduced such a resolution, but since it is before us we must pass it."

Senator Hawkins, Democrat: "I am sorry this resolution was introduced. If I had my way about it I would go after that editor in the old Kentucky style."

Senator Cain, Democrat: "I have only kind words for Senator Stone, but let us ignore this article; don't let us fly off the handle. It won't hurt the senator from Missouri for us to turn down this resolution. It should be referred to the proper committee."

Senator White, Democrat: "Stone is secure in his reputation regardless of our action, but let's not chloroform this resolution as Senators Craig and Cain would have us do."

Senator McClintoc, Democrat: "The action of the senate in adopting this resolution will do more to dignify this scurrilous sheet than silent contempt would have done. I'm sorry the question was brought up."

Visited His Brother in Hospital.

James W. Ray returned a few days ago from Omaha where he visited his brother, Charles W. Ray, of Golden Prairie, Wyo., in the Methodist hospital there. Mr. Ray was assisting his sons in butchering on their ranch in Wyoming, about two weeks ago, when he struck himself in the left eye with butcher knife. He was taken at once to Omaha for treatment, and is under the care of Drs. Gifford and Patton, eye specialists. He will soon be able to return home, but his physicians are not yet able to say whether he will be able to see with the injured eye. Mr. Ray and his family moved to Golden Prairie from Maryville about seven years ago.

GUN-SHOT VICTIM

ACCIDENTAL DISCHARGE WOUNDS MRS. REYNOLDS.

SHOTS WERE GLANCING

Guilford Woman Injured by Gun in Hands of Her Son—Eight Shots Pierced Her Side and Arm.

Another victim of injury from the gun that wasn't loaded was Mrs. George Reynolds, wife of a farmer living southeast of Guilford, who was painfully, though not seriously injured Friday afternoon, by being struck in the right arm and side by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of her nine year old son, Cleo.

The accident happened at the Reynolds' home about 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon. The injured woman and her son were in the living room together and the boy was tinkering with a twelve gauge singlebarreled shotgun. When the gun was discharged most of the shot struck the Round Oak stove, and luckily, those that struck Mrs. Reynolds were only glancing shots.

Dr. M. M. Pollard happened to be in the vicinity at the time and he was immediately called. Examination disclosed that only eight shots had pierced the woman's arm and side and that the injury was not serious.

TO REMODEL COURT ROOMS.

Committee of Attorneys Appointed to Confer With County Court in the Matter.

Circuit court adjourned late Friday afternoon until Monday, when several motions will be taken up, and Cecil Stackhouse, who has been in the county jail charged with forgery, and Thomas Gugerty, charged with common assault, will be arraigned. The February term of court is about over and an adjournment will be taken next week.

The court Friday appointed L. C. Cook, W. A. Blagg and A. F. Harvey to see the county court about some improvements needed in the circuit court room. A re-arrangement of the court room is being planned. The court would like to see a partition built in the southeast corner of the court room, where law books can be kept and the attorneys can hold their conferences during the progress of a trial in this new room. One reason for the change is to keep the law library in a room so the books cannot be taken out when there is no court. There will be a lock to the door so the room can be closed when there is no court. There is some talk of re-arranging the jury box.

The following cases were disposed of late Friday afternoon.

A. C. Snyder vs. C. E. Taylor, appeal from J. P. court, cause stricken from the docket and no costs are taxable against either party.

A. O. Mason vs. J. C. Chappell, attachment, sheriff ordered by agreement to sell property attached at private sale.

John A. Hogan et al. vs. Peter Mergen et al., will contest, continued for want of service in time.

Joseph T. B. Johnson vs. Rosetta Sowers and Willis Sawyers, will contest, continued by agreement.

E. E. Williams, administrator, vs. John W. and J. E. Shearer, note, continued for want of service in time.

Hugh Thrasher vs. C. G. W., damages, continued for want of service in time.

Joseph McLaughlin vs. John G. Hayes, motion to quash execution, continued at plaintiff's costs.

Prosecuting Attorney Wright nolle prossed the following cases:

Ad Huffstutter, selling and giving away cigarette papers.

A. F. Reeder, charges of disturbing the peace.

CHARGED WITH COMMON ASSAULT

Thomas Gugerty of Conception Was Brought to Maryville Saturday and is in Jail.

Thomas Gugerty of Conception Junction was arrested and brought to Maryville Saturday morning by Gabe Purcell on a charge of common assault. The prosecuting witness is Fred Litten. The fight took place at the Junction Friday night, when Litten was considerably bruised up by Gugerty with a beer bottle, it is said. Gugerty had been to Maryville early in the evening, and it is said had wet goods with him when he returned to the Junction on the late Wabash train. He invited Litten to take a drink, and when he refused Gugerty began to attack him, and it is said hit him across the head with a bottle. Gugerty is now in the county jail and will be arraigned Monday.

FIRST OF SERIES.

Rev. J. D. Randolph to Give Three Sermons on "Making an American Home."

Sunday evening at 7:30 Rev. J. D. Randolph, pastor of the Buchanan street Methodist church will preach the first of three sermons on "Making an American Home." The subject will be, "What Are Some of the Conditions of a Successful Marriage?" The second of the series will be preached Sunday evening, March 16th, on the theme, "The Significance of the Rising Tide of Divorce." The third will not be preached until March 30th. The subject will be, "The Place of Religion in Home Making."

TELEPHONE MEETING.

Many in Attendance at the Farmers Phone Meeting in Circuit Court Room This Afternoon.

The Farmers telephone meeting being held this afternoon in the circuit court room is largely attended, and the meeting was presided over by W. A. White as chairman and John R. Evans as secretary. The proposition of incorporation is to be taken up, but at a late hour this afternoon the members were still discussing the matter. There seems to be quite an opposition to incorporation among some of the members.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Tuesday evening at 6:30 p. m. the Men's Club will hold a man-and-boy banquet, and the men of the church will entertain the boys. The after dinner program will consist of the following speeches: "What Can the Men's Club Do to Build Up the Town?" by Secretary Hoffman of the Commercial club; "What Can the Boy and Young Man Do for the Church?" by Mr. Fred Hutchison, and Mr. Van Cleave will return from Washington in time to describe the inauguration of two Presbyterian elders as president and vice-president of the nation. Holy week will be observed with four mid-week services, aside from the Palm Sunday and Easter service programs. Our fellowship and worship is yours.

Buchanan Street Methodist.
There is a great lesson for the Sunday school hour on "The Destruction of Sodom." Lot is a good example of the business man who succeeds in business, but fails as a father. We begin at 9:30 a. m. Meet with us.
Preaching by the pastor at 10:45 a. m. Are you tired Sunday morning after the week's work? Feel like resting all morning? Rather read the paper than hear a sermon? Take this for a morning thought tomorrow when you get up. I have worked for myself all week. I ought to work for God today. If all the tired people stayed at home there wouldn't be many at church. My pastor will preach better if I encourage him by my presence at the service.
League at 6:30 p. m.
Preaching by the pastor at 7:30 p. m. "What Are Some of the Conditions of a Successful Marriage?" This will be the first of three sermons on "Making an American Home."

Organ prelude at 7:15 by Mr. Landon.
Preaching at 7:30 by the pastor. This will be the last of the series of "Ancient Stories With Modern Messages." Subject for the evening, "The Story of the Flood." The choir will sing "Unto Him Who Loved Us," by Schaecker. The public is cordially invited to attend all of these services.
The Methodist Brotherhood will hold its regular monthly supper and meeting Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the parlors.

Next Sunday will begin special Passion week services, which the pastor has prepared for. There will be services each evening, a full program of which will be published later.

Left for Oklahoma.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hall left Saturday morning for Kaw City, Okla., on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Bernard Frost.

Mrs. W. A. Townsend went to St. Joseph Saturday morning to visit her daughter, Mrs. S. M. Smith.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Informal Tea for Bride-Elect.
Miss Mae Orear was the hostess of an informal tea Saturday afternoon, a courtesy to Miss Esther Shoemaker.

Wednesday Afternoon Party.
Mrs. Esther Shoemaker will be the honor guest of an afternoon party Wednesday that will be given in honor of her approaching marriage, by Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend and Mrs. Luther Forsyth, at Mrs. Townsend's home.

"Over the Teacups" Club.
This rather new club met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. S. G. Gillam. It is purely a social organization. All the members were present excepting Mrs. George P. Bellows. The other members are Mrs. J. B. Robinson, Mrs. W. A. Rickenbrode, Mrs. George L. Willey, Mrs. Charles S. Jackson, Mrs. O. C. Hanna, Mrs. C. C. Corwin, Mrs. J. F. Colby, Mrs. G. H. Colbert, Mrs. S. G. Gillam, Mrs. V. I. Moore.

A Dance at Woodmen Hall.
A dance was given Friday evening at the Woodmen of the World hall in the Roseberry building by that lodge for their members and friends. The music was furnished by Frank and Lou Reynolds and Dave Williams. Many couples attended the dance. On Friday evening, March 21, a hard time social is to be given by the Woodmen lodge for their members and friends.

For Miss Shoemaker.
Mrs. D. J. Thomas gave a Friday evening party for Miss Esther Shoemaker, who will be a March bride. The house decorations were entirely of hearts and potted plants. The prizes at progressive hearts went to Mrs. Ferdinand Townsend and Mr. F. G. Shoemaker, and the guest prize to Miss Shoemaker. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frazer Boyd of Kansas City, Miss Louise Sallander of Ft. Madison, Ia., and Mrs. Bertram Clark of Chillicothe.

Ernest Yeaman Surprised.
The Endeavor society of the First Christian church gave a surprise party for its president, Mr. Ernest Yeaman, in the church parlors Friday evening. Mr. Yeaman will depart Sunday night for Chicago, where he will be employed in the offices of the American Railway company. About fifty members were present to do him honor, and a handsome gold C. E. pin was presented him. Mr. Yeaman has made an excellent president for the society, the work having increased 100 per cent during his administration of one year and a half.

Parnell Art Club Met.
Mrs. Frank Hall was hostess to the Parnell Art club Thursday afternoon. After the usual time at work the business session was held, and among other things the name of "The Parnell Art Club" chosen for the club name, then the luncheon. After the members were served the hostess gave a luncheon in honor of her daughter, Veronica, who was 5 years old that day, seventeen of the little girl's friends partaking of the feast. The members of the club present at Thursday's meeting were Mrs. Elias Klaas, Mrs. John O'Day, Mrs. Everett Bailey, Mrs. S. B. Moody, Mrs. H. O. Gray, Mrs. Fred Breit, Mrs. Ben Jones, Mrs. Ed Jones, Mrs. Charles Evans, Mrs. W. N. Morgan, Mrs. C. V. Roof, Mrs. Loren Long.

Birthday Surprise Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zwilling and family, living six and a half miles southeast of Clearmont, were surprised Thursday evening by their friends and neighbors, who took ice cream and cake with them and went to their home to spend the evening and celebrate Mrs. Zwilling's birthday anniversary. Music and games were the main pastimes. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Newton LeGrande, Mr. and Mrs. James Hornbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. Tillie Hornbuckle and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Sowers, Mr. and Mrs. James Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Reynolds and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards, Misses Clara Neff, Nola and Iva Farrens, Gertrude Edwards, Carrie Neal, Messrs. Lon Sexton, James Edwards, Jr., Otis Falkner, Lennis, Lee and Frances Curran, William and Ella Zwilling.

Palestine Aid Society.
The Ladies' Aid society of Palestine church, twelve miles southwest of Maryville, met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clarence Charles, when the time was spent delightfully in sewing and in a social way. Mrs. Sumner Shockley and Mr. Will Gex were guests of the society. The hostess also entertained her Sunday school class at this time and served a most appetizing luncheon to all the company. Sickness among the members of the society and bad roads kept several away. The members present were Mrs. Henry Anderson, Mrs. Will Gex, Mrs. John Gex, Mrs. John Neal, Mrs. Dick McDowell, Miss Minnie Farmer. The

WOMEN ASK WRAPPED BREAD.

Bakers Wouldn't Eat Own Product if They Saw Drivers Handle It, Says Chicago Clubwoman.

Chicago, March 6.—Clubwomen have begun a campaign to compel bakers to wrap bread. Five women appeared before a city council committee yesterday and debated against representatives of the bakers opposing the proposed ordinance.

"If you gentlemen would follow one of your drivers for a single day, you would not touch a loaf of bread he delivered," asserted Mrs. A. M. Weimberg, vice president of the Clean Food club. "One day I saw a driver with dirty hands and wearing no gloves, carrying bread into a grocery. After that I baked my own bread."

A representative of the bakers remarked during the discussion that the husband of a Ravenswood clubwoman whispered to him, while his wife and others were inspecting a bakery that he preferred unwrapped bread.

"Yes, I knew that man," responded Mrs. Charles H. Betts, "he died a month later."

members of Mrs. Charles' Sunday school class are Brookings Gex, Louise Gex, Stanley Gex, John and Glen Shockley, Vae McDowell, Ruth Ramey, Robert Mountjoy. The next meeting of the Ladies' Aid will be held Thursday afternoon, March 20, with Mrs. John Neal. The ladies are now engaged in sewing for one another, the hosts of each meeting paying them for their services, which is turned into the church treasury.

Missionary Society Meeting.
The Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Gnet Olney. A short prayer service led by the president, Mrs. Eugene Ogden, preceded a short business session, during which the state meeting that is to be held in St. Joseph April 2 to 4, was considered, several expressing intention of attending. On account of the state meeting the regular meeting of the society, which would be held April 4, has been postponed a week to April 11, and will take place at the home of Mrs. E. L. Harrington, 723 North Market street, and will be held in connection with the missionary tea. After the business session Friday, Mrs. Omar Catterson read the Scripture lesson from the 12th chapter of Hebrews, "State Missions, or a Day With Missionary Churches," was the study for the afternoon, reports being given by Miss Marcia Messenger and Mrs. G. B. Holmes. The magnitude and efficiency of the work of the Calvary Baptist church of Kansas City was especially dwelt upon in the report of Mrs. Holmes, who attended a Sunday service there recently. The meeting closed with prayer led by Mrs. W. H. Davis. The hostess then invited her guests to remain for the delicious luncheon she had prepared, quite out of the ordinary with this society, and was all the more enjoyed because unexpected. Mrs. Olney was assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. F. W. Olney.

Winfield Scott Critically Ill.

Winfield Scott, one of the best known farmers in the county, was brought to St. Francis hospital Friday night from his home, west of Maryville, by physicians. A surgical operation was the intention, but owing to the seriousness of his condition after arriving at the hospital, the matter was given up. He is not expected to survive long.

Visiting in Bolckow.

Mrs. W. E. Goforth and Miss Doris and Donald went to Bolckow Friday evening to remain over Sunday the guests of Mr. Goforth's sister, Mrs. Wier Cooper, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goforth. Mr. Goforth will join his family Sunday morning.

"Mutt and Jeff."

"Mutt and Jeff," a real comedy with real music, the kind you like to hear and the sort you'll whistle on the way home, comes to the Empire theater next Wednesday night. Gus Hill sends the big two-car show with forty-five clever people, singers, dancers and comedians, including twenty-five cute little girls, half of them "squabs." A magnificent scenic production, including the steamship "Insurgent" in South American waters, will be seen—not forgetting "Mutt and Jeff," the inimitable laugh producers, who are constantly in evidence, except when a breathing spell is absolutely necessary, then a catchy musical number is introduced to prevent convulsions. The reason for the extraordinary success of Gus Hill's unique comedy is evident to the audience before the play has been under way for five minutes. Don't miss "Mutt and Jeff."

S. S. Webb and Charles Ferguson of Burlington Junction were in the city Saturday.

BRIBERY IN HYDE TRIAL

Bailiff in Charge of Jury Says
He Was Offered $1,500

FORMER JURYMAN MADE OFFER

Kansas City, March 8.—Thomas Hollowell, a deputy marshal in charge of the jury in the Hyde murder trial, told Judge Porterfield he had been offered a bribe of $1,000 to bring about a hung jury in the case and $1,500 to bring about an acquittal. Judge Porterfield issued a John Doe warrant for the arrest of a juror in the second Hyde trial, who, according to Hollowell, made the offer.

Hollowell said the juror called him over the telephone last week and made an appointment with him, and then said:

"Tom, I want to talk turkey to you. There's $1,000 in it for you if the Hyde jury hangs. There's $1,500 for an acquittal."

Frank P. Walsh, chief of counsel for the defense, said:

"I don't believe there is a word of truth in the whole story."

Judge Porterfield said he had known of the alleged attempt since last week and had been working ever since to get the alleged briber into a trap.

Judge Porterfield admitted that Hollowell had made to him the allegations credited to the juror.

"Hollowell," said the judge, "is a reliable man, and I have no reason to discredit his statements. A John Doe warrant has been issued, but further than this I can say nothing."

PROVIDES RURAL SCHOOLS

Missouri Senate Passes Bill to Give Country Children Better Chance.

Jefferson City, March 8.—The senate passed the bills providing for rural high schools and for a teachers' training course to be taught in all the high schools. These measures will cost the state a large sum annually. In return, however, it is promised that a system of rural high schools will be established in every county that now is without these advantages and render it unnecessary in future years for Missouri to draw on other states annually for 2,500 school teachers.

The house passed a bill by Moore of Barton requiring companies that handle motor car insurance to take out a license. The fee is set at $25.

The Painter road dragging bill providing for an interconnecting system of state dragged roads was sent to engrossment in the house. The bill already has passed the senate. It will establish a system of 9,000 miles of state road, Lieutenant Governor Painter says.

BILLIKOLF'S PLEA TO STATE

Kansas Citizen Asks Lawmakers for Better Conditions for Feeble Minded.

Jefferson City, March 8.—An appeal for the state to do something to relieve the crowded conditions at the state institution for the feeble minded at Marshall was made before the legislative appropriation committee by Jacob Billikopf of the Kansas City welfare board. At least two thousand feeble minded persons needed the immediate care of the state institution at Marshall who could not be sent there because there was no room for them, Mr. Billikopf said. On the waiting list of the institution were 500 applications, while many others had not been sent in because it was known the colony was full to overflowing.

The Kansas City welfare worker recommended that the next legislature appoint a commission to investigate these subjects and report remedial means to the legislature.

Mother Jones Put on Trial.

Charleston, W. Va., March 8.—"Mother" Jones, the aged labor leader, and fifty other persons, charged before the military commission with conspiracy in connection with the rioting in the Paint Creek section of the Kanawha coal field, were placed on trial before the commission at Paint Creek Junction. Another charge is that they were concerned in the killing of Fred Babbitt, a bookkeeper, shot dead in the fighting at Mucklow. The trial is expected to last several days.

Ways and Means Committee Meets.

Washington, March 8.—With the house ways and means committee meeting to organize, the real tariff work of the Sixty-third congress began. With only three new members of the Democratic side of the committee, it seems practically certain that the tariff measures framed under the supervision of Majority Leader Underwood during the last session would be accepted by the new committee and laid before the caucus before the extra session begins April 1.

Murder Jury Disagrees.

Hollivar, Mo., March 8.—The jurors in the trial of Marshall Copeland, a divinity student at the Morrisville (Mo.) college, charged with killing Bryan Crane, a fellow student, reported a disagreement and were discharged. The case was continued until the next term of court. The killing of Crane was the result of a hazing incident, in which Copeland was the victim.

IF A LAXATIVE IS NEEDED—"CASCARETS"

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills Are Violent—They Act on Bowels as Pepper Acts in Nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your liver, stomach and bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.—Advertisement.

MADERO FAMILY IN NEW YORK

Surviving Relatives of Mexico's
President Are Peaceful.

New York, March 8.—If the immediate surviving relatives of Francisco I. Madero, the deposed president of Mexico, who was slain a few weeks ago, have any intention of resisting the Diaz-Huerta regime now in power it did not appear from the statements or demeanor of his father, his uncle, and two officials under the former Madero administration, who arrived from Havana on the steamer Mexico.

When Francisco Madero, Sr., was asked by a newspaper man as to reports that Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City used his influence against President Madero at the time of the uprising he simply nodded his head as if in affirmation, but would say nothing.

Ex-Governor Garza, who was with President Madero and Vice President Suarez when they were arrested and was confined in the national palace with them for thirty hours, said the president stipulated with General Huerta that he would resign the presidency if those under arrest with him were liberated and that Huerta permitted Garza to go free simply to deceive Madero.

A. H. LEWIS TESTIFIES

Thaw Family Riches Used Against Him, Is Complaint of Harry.

Albany, N. Y., March 8.—Alfred Henry Lewis of New York told Governor Sulzer's committee of inquiry what he knew concerning the recent efforts to secure Harry K. Thaw's release from the Matteawan hospital.

Mr. Lewis declared he first visited Thaw at the institution about six weeks ago at the instance of former Governor W. A. Stone of Pennsylvania, whom he described as "the attorney for the Thaw family."

He said Thaw told him that while there had been a great deal of talk of the wealth of the Thaw family, "there was $100 to keep me locked up here to every dollar to get me out." Thaw, he said, declared there was a conspiracy to keep him in confinement.

Lewis asserted he knew nothing of the alleged attempt to bribe Dr. Russell, former superintendent of Matteawan, until he read it in the papers.

Henry Charged With Contempt.

New York, March 8.—United States Commissioner Shields held for removal to Washington George G. Henry, the New York banker charged with contempt for refusing to answer questions of the Pujio money trust committee. Henry's counsel obtained his release on a writ of habeas corpus under $2,000 bail.

CONDENSED NEWS

An order issued by Secretary Houston continues in force all rules in the agricultural department.

The Missouri senate adopted the joint resolution, already adopted by the house, ratifying the direct election amendment.

The date of the wedding of Miss Ethel Carow Roosevelt to Dr. Richard Derby of Oyster Bay has been fixed for April 4.

James A. Fowler of Knoxville, Tenn., assistant to the attorney general, will remain as the "trust buster" of the administration until summer at least.

The danger of a general strike on the railroads of Great Britain has been finally overcome, the Midland railroad having surrendered to the railroad workers' union.

The necessity of combinations in "this era of demoralized competition" was the burden of the argument made before the supreme court by John G. Milburn on behalf of the book trust.

HEARS WOMAN TOILER ON WAGES

Dramatic Scene is Feature of Session of Vice Commission.

GIRL CONTRADICTS ROSENWALD

Employee of His Company Does Not Agree With His Statement That There Is No Relation Between Wage and Vice—$3 a Week Not Enough.

Chicago, March 8.—There was a tense, dramatic moment at the end of the forenoon session of the vice commission. Julius Rosenwald, president of Sears, Roebuck & Co., multimillionaire, philanthropist and employer of over 4,000 women, himself at one time head of a vice investigation committee, had been on the stand for hours, testifying to the wage scale of his company and explaining that in his judgment wages and the immorality of women had little to do with each other.

The small room where the sessions are being held was packed with a well dressed crowd, many of them women.

Then a young woman, clad in black and answering to the name of "Emily" took her seat in front of the inquisitors and by the side of Rosenwald.

She had been employed by Sears, Roebuck & Co., but left there to take a better position. Her only criticism of the firm was that the forewoman "scolded" and made some of the luckless culprits guilty of some infraction of the rules, or making a mistake, cry.

Situation Becomes Acute.

Suddenly attention became acute as Lieutenant Governor Barrett O'Hara, a young man, leaned over, and, with blushes, asked the witness a question which he found difficult in wording.

"We have a great deal of philosophy here today from men; now, let's find out what yours is. If a girl was getting $3 a week (the minimum paid by Sears, Roebuck & Co. to girls living alone) and had to support a widowed mother, would you blame that girl if she—if she—she committed a crime?"

The witness looked puzzled for a moment and then, comprehending looked up frankly and replied: "No, I wouldn't."

"Would you blame her if she killed herself?"

"No, I wouldn't," came the emphatic reply.

"And would you blame her if she committed a greater crime?"

The young lieutenant governor's meaning was in his embarrassed tones and his blushes, and by now the girl was the more composed of the two. She paused just a moment and then repeated, distinctly, "No, I would not."

The room had been painfully quiet but at this there was a round of applause, led by the women spectators and the first general spontaneous outburst of the session.

"Emily" was then dismissed.

"The employers think low wages have nothing to do with immorality among women. The women who have fallen think low wages have everything to do with it."

That was the way a member of the committee summed up the conflicting testimony given at the hearing.

HUEBNER ROLLS RECORD

Chicago Bowler Scores 287 at American Bowling Congress.

Toledo, March 8.—Another American Bowling congress record was established when Louis Huebner of Chicago, rolling in the individuals, scored 287 in his game. This surpasses the former record of 280 held by L. Vell stick of Kansas, made at the tournament in Chicago in 1912.

Huebner's work was marvelous from a bowling standpoint. In his first game he had nine straight strikes.

M'FARLAND GAINS DECISION

Jack Britton Outpointed by Packey in Madison Square.

New York, March 8.—Packey McFarland outpointed Jack Britton in ten rounds of a fairly rapid and clever fight at Madison Square Garden. While McFarland had the better of the argument as a whole, Britton made the better showing in the final round.

Packey showed that he was the cleverer boxer, but Britton proved that he is the hardest hitter.

McReynolds to Tackle Standard Oil

Washington, March 8.—The Standard Oil investigation begun during the Taft administration will be continued by Attorney General McReynolds to determine whether the decree dissolving the giant trust has been violated. It is known that Morrison and Pagan have reported that their investigation so far indicates that there is serious doubt whether the "trust" has been actually dissolved.

Canadian House in Deadlock.

Ottawa, Ont., March 8.—Not since 1896 has the Dominion parliament experienced such a protracted deadlock as that which now exists over the clause in the government's navy bill which authorized a grant of $35,000,000 to the British government for building new battleships, which are to be an integral part of the British navy. The house of commons has now been in continuous session for four days.

The Majors good roads bill, providing for the creation of a state highway department, headed by a highway commissioner and an engineer under him, was sent to engrossment in the house after a hard fight.

Mr. Orr, the Democratic floor leader, championed the bill. The purpose of creating the department, he said, was to create a board that had as its primary purpose the encouragement of road building. The department, he said, also would have more authority than the engineer had at present. The present engineer is appointed by the state board of agriculture. The bill sent to engrossment gives the governor the power of appointment.

Mr. Robin Came This Morning.

Mr. Robin came in early this morning, the first of his family to arrive. He came from the southeast and settled in the branches of the trees and twittered and sang so merrily that he attracted the attention of people at early breakfast, but he managed to dart around so quickly that he was not seen until he reached the home of Dr. Vilas Martin, on South Buchanan street, when he could not resist stopping to talk to Forrest and Beverly Alice and tell them that he had come to stay. He cheerfully and stoutly declared several times that he had brought springtime with him, and that she was here to stay.

High School Notes

The basket ball season at the high school is just about at an end. The class A tournament ended Wednesday, when Murray's team defeated Lyle's team 15 to 14, thus making a clean sweep of it for his team, having won all six games scheduled. Scott's team was a close second with five won and one lost, and Lyle and Blagg divided honors for the last place, each having won one game and lost five.

The class B tournament really held the position of prominence this week, for when the schedule was ended last week it was found that three teams were tied for first place. An elimination contest was arranged for the first three days of this week, and when it was played off the standing remained unchanged. Another elimination series was arranged, the last game of which is to be played Monday.

Unless some games are arranged later the season will close with a series of three games between Murray's team, who finished first in the class A, and a picked team, captained by Paul Thompson.

The visitors of the week were Miss Hermion Fisher, Miss Helen Helply, Miss Ida Martin of Tarkio, and Miss Esther Carothers of Clarinda.

The advanced seniors are having a candy sale at Price & McNeal's store.

The advanced seniors were entertained last night by Miss Edna Moore, Miss Neva Sage, Miss Lois Farmer, Miss Gladys Ford, Mr. Howard Leech and Elmer Montgomery, at the home of Miss Moore, at 815 South Main street.

The first part of the evening was spent in portraying the seven ages of life for each member of the class. This was done by cutting a suitable picture from a magazine, pasting it under each age, and writing a piece of poetry to correspond. After the seven ages were completed each student was given the booklet bearing his name as a souvenir. Refreshments were then served, after which parlor games were played. The rooms were very beautifully decorated with class colors and pennants, and piano numbers were given by Misses Sage and Moore. As a conclusion to the evening the class song was sung by the student body. Those present were Harold Booth, Alice Barr, Claire Kidder, Walter Dersch, Marie Cain, George Wamsley, Helen Wamsley, Bessie Webster, Martha Denny, Harry Kinsinger, Walter Frasier, Ruby Curnutt, Larinda Craig, Roy McPherrin, Nellie Rigney, Marie Medsker, Mable Neal, Nellie Knapperberger, Holly Ford, Ernest Coler, Abner Johnson, Elmer Montgomery, Edna Moore, Neva Sage, Lois Farmer, Howard Leech.

Now that the basket ball season is in its last stages, the boys of the athletic association are looking forward to training for the annual track meet, which will be held here in the last week of April. If the weather continues favorable the members will start their road work next week, for they have been doing light work in the gym for some time. The prospects for a winning team are very bright this year, for the squad will be unusually large, and will be under the direction of two experienced athletes, Prof. Westbrook and Prof. Israel.

Perry's Old Flagship Raised.
Erie, Pa., March 7.—Commodore Perry's old flagship, the Niagara, which for almost a century has rested at the bottom of Misery bay, an arm of Lake Erie, was raised to the surface. Pontoon was placed beneath the old warship and as soon as a channel can be cut through the ice it will be towed to this city. The timbers were found to be in a good state of preservation.

Ryan Re-elected President of Union.
Indianapolis, March 7.—Frank M. Ryan of Chicago, one of the labor leaders convicted in the dynamite conspiracy trials here, was re-elected president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron workers at its sessions here.

A $10,000 Fire at Linn Creek.
Linn Creek, Mo., March 7.—The L. F. King building, containing Baker's general store and the Linn Creek telephone exchange, burned, together with the Linn Creek Mercantile warehouse. The mercantile store building sustained damage of $1,500. The total loss was $10,000.

Ice Men in Session.
Kansas City, March 7.—Several hundred delegates from Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Texas were present at the opening session of the annual convention of the Southwestern Ice Manufacturers' association.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand
On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles."

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

HEROIC CAPTAIN LOSES HIS LIFE

Master of Tug Returns to Steamer to Save Seamen.

EXPLOSION CATCHES RESCUERS

Dynamite in Hold of British Steamer
Lets Go and Half Hundred Men Lose Lives—Three Score More Wounded, Many Fatally.

Baltimore, March 8.—Three hundred tons of dynamite being loaded in the British tramp steamer Alum Chine, in the lower harbor, off Fort Howard, exploded, instantly killing from forty to fifty men, wounding and maiming three score more, some of whom may die, and dealing destruction to $500,000 worth of property.

The Alum Chine and a loading scow alongside it were completely annihilated; the tug Atlantic, which twice went to the rescue of imperiled seamen, was set on fire and later sank; the collier Jacon, just completed and ready for trial, was raked to its deck and its plates riddled, and buildings in Baltimore and cities and towns many miles away were rocked by the force of the terrific explosion.

The cause of the disaster has not been learned, but federal authorities have instituted a thorough investigation to place the blame.

Excited survivors told conflicting stories, some insisting that a negro stevedore caused the explosion by jamming a pike into a case of dynamite. This is denied by eye-witnesses, who declared that smoke was seen pouring from the Alum Chine's hold several minutes before the explosion occurred.

Twenty Bodies Recovered.

The bodies of twenty dead have been brought to morgues in this city and sixty injured are in the hospitals. The estimates of the dead included thirty stevedores and checkers of the Joseph R. Board company, employed in transferring dynamite from a barge to the Alum Chine, which was bound for Panama; eight members of the crew of the Alum Chine, six men on the collier Jacon and the captain and several members of the crew of the tug Atlantic.

Many bodies, it is believed, never will be recovered from the icy waters. Of the injured a score are frightfully mutilated. At least fifteen are expected to die.

Among the dead who have been identified are: Captain William Van Dyke of the tug Atlantic; Robert W. Digs, first mate of the tug Atlantic; Edward Watters, chief officer of the Alum Chine.

Captain Van Dyke of the wrecked tug Atlantic lost his life in heroically rushing to the aid of the imperiled British seamen on the doomed Alum Chine in his effort carried with him to death many members of his crew.

200 Drown When Steamer Sinks.

Constantinople, March 8.—Two hundred passengers and the members of the crew of the small British steamer Calvados were drowned when the steamer foundered in the sea of Marmora in a blizzard.

OPIUM RING BROKEN UP

Custom Agents End Career of Band of Smugglers.

Portland, Ore., March 8.—So carefully planned that one smuggler knew scarcely any of the others in it, the biggest opium ring discovered on the Pacific coast in recent years is being broken up by customs agents.

Cities in which agents of the ring were active were said by federal officers to be San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma, Spokane, Butte, Salt Lake, Chicago and New York on this side of the border, and Victoria and Vancouver in British Columbia, and a supply station at Honolulu.

Samuel Hausmann of Seattle, who was ostensibly engaged in the real estate business, was arrested in Honolulu on Feb. 7 with a large quantity of opium in his possession.

Three arrests followed in Portland and customs agents said they have a confession which explains in full the workings of the ring.

Greeks Hold 78,000 Turks.

Athens, Greece, March 8.—The Greek military authorities declared that they have 78,450 Turkish prisoners, including the troops who surrendered at Janina, while 20,000 others are surrounded at various places. As a reason for demanding an indemnity from Turkey the Greek government points out that the maintenance of the prisoners already has involved the expenditure of $1,000,000.

Will Soon Discuss Home Rule Again

London, March 8.—The British parliament was prorogued for one of the shortest recesses in its history. It is to reassemble on Monday for another of the busy sessions for which the Liberal government has become famous. The home rule bill, the Welsh disestablishment bill and a few minor measures, to which the lords refused assent, will have to be reintroduced and repassed.

BROOKLYN TABERNACLE

BIBLE STUDY ON
HOPE FOR THE SODOMITES.

Genesis 19:12-17, 23-29—March 9.

"Come ye out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch no unclean thing."—2 Corinthians 6:17.

WHEN Abraham was ninety-nine years old—in 2021 B. C.—his encampment was at Hebron. There the Lord and two angels appeared to him as men. He knew them not, but entertained them. (Hebrews 13:2.) The one called the Lord was doubtless the Logos, subsequently man's Redeemer. The Lord on this occasion told Abraham that Ishmael would not be the heir of the Promise, but that shortly Sarah would have a son. The next year Isaac was born.

As Abraham walked a little distance with his visitors, he learned who they really were, and that the destruction of Sodom was imminent. Nobly and generously he petitioned God's Mercy on the Sodomites. The Lord gave assurance that if there were even ten righteous in Sodom, it would be spared.

Thus of the Sodomites and the "Sodomites of the antediluvians God made illustrations of the great lesson, "All the wicked will He destroy." We are to remember that these are not illustrations of eternal torment, but of destruction. These merely passed into ordinary; for the death sentence passed upon humanity in Adam. But since "Jesus Christ by the grace of God tasted death for every man," all of Adam's children will eventually come from the tomb.

"And Delivered Righteous Lot."

St. Peter informs us that Lot was not in sympathy with his surroundings. (2 Peter 2:7, 8.) The flight of Lot, with his wife and two unmarried daughters, is simply told in our lesson. The intimation of verse 25 is that God's Mercy toward Lot was because of his relationship to Abraham. This view is consistent with all Scriptural statements on the subject.

Adam's entire race was condemned to death in him. Hence Divine Justice owed them nothing. Divine Mercy had entered into a special Covenant with Abraham, but that Covenant extended to none others, except Abraham's seed. Therefore Lot's relationship to Abraham was the only reason why God should favor him.

"There's a Wideness in God's Mercy."

This does not signify that God is merciless, but that, having provided a way by which He will exercise Mercy, He rarely exercises it outside of that channel. The channel of God's Mercy is Christ Jesus, who declared, "No man cometh unto the Father but by Me." St. Peter substantiates this statement. See Acts 4:12. The Scriptures clearly teach that none were saved until Jesus died. This is the key which unlocks the wonders of God's grace even though to some the statement may seem astounding.

We should rid ourselves of the thought that the holy men of the past went to Heaven, and the remainder of mankind to eternal torture. The Bible most distinctly declares that all both good and bad, "sleep with their fathers." They still sleep, awaiting the time when Abraham's Seed (Galatians 3:16, 29) will be completed, and set up God's Kingdom on earth, overthrow sin and death, and deliver the captives from the tomb.

The First, or Chief Resurrection.

The First Resurrection began with our Lord Jesus and is not yet complete; for all the Elect are to share both His sacrificial death and His Resurrection. These will reign with Christ a thousand years, and as the Seed of Abraham, fully empowered, will bless all those redeemed by the precious blood of Calvary.—Revelation 20:4.

St. Paul emphasizes this point in Hebrews 11:35-40, declaring that while the Ancient Worthies received indications of God's favors, nevertheless that favor can come only through Christ. Consequently they cannot reach everlasting life until the Spiritual Seed of Abraham shall have been completed. Jesus also attested that they had not gone to Heaven, saying, "No man hath ascended up to Heaven."—John 3:13.

Hope for the Sodomites.

The hope for the Sodomites is exactly the same as that for the remainder of mankind. The hope of the world is the Messianic Kingdom, and the deliverance from sin and death which it will effect. The basis of hope for both Church and world is the one sacrifice at Calvary.

Jesus declares that it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the Judgment Day (the thousand years of His reign) than for those of His day who rejected Him. This clearly shows that the fate of the Sodomites is not sealed. We also find abundant testimony in Ezekiel 16:46-63 that the Sodomites will be awakened from death and brought to a knowledge of God and to an opportunity of obtaining human perfection and everlasting life through the Messiah—the Seed of Abraham—by willing obedience to the laws of the Messianic Kingdom.

MOST TIMELY HELP

How a Nyctalops Repaid a Favor Shown Him by a Young Bank Clerk.

By FLORENCE LILLIAN HENDERSON.

With the magic of a smile Walter Davis ruled all the little world of Millville. He had started in at the bank as messenger, and at twenty-two bright, intelligent, energetic, had worked his way into the favor of every person connected with that institution from the president down to the janitor—save one.

The exception was Bruce Lowell. He seemed always to have envied Walter his rapid advancement and popularity. He was a dark-featured, sinister-looking man, secretive and surly. If the light-hearted Walter had more closely scanned the surface of affairs he would have noticed that Lowell scowled at him most particularly when he was in the company of Viola Merton, the daughter of the president of the bank and the belle of the town.

Walter was always doing kind things and making other people happy. It was no marvel to anybody, therefore, when one day, going home to supper from the bank, he stopped to speak to a blind man slowly making his way along the street.

"Can I help you, friend?" inquired Walter, in his warm-hearted, impulsive way.

"Why, yes," replied the beggar. "I want to be set right on the road to Clyde."

"Why, that is fully ten miles away, and darkness will overtake you before you reach your destination," observed Walter.

"Oh, I'm all right in the dark," rather enigmatically explained the blind man.

"Why don't you take the train?" asked Walter.

"Because I have no money," was the blunt response.

"But I have, and there you are!" cried Walter, handing the mendicant

"Why Don't You Take the Train?"

a two-dollar bill. "Keep right on as you are headed, and you'll reach the depot."

"Hold on," spoke the blind man, with a queer grateful catch in his voice. "A little silver will do."

"No, no—you are welcome to what I have given you," declared Walter. "I can spare it."

"I want to know your name, anyhow," persisted the mendicant.

"Walter Davis."

"I'll remember it. This is the most timely help I have ever received."

"Glad of it," said Walter heartily, and went on his way, immediately forgetting his kind deed, but followed by the ardently-expressed wishes of his pensioner that "he would have all kinds of good luck."

The parting benison of the blind man, however, did not follow out. Instead, bad luck, indeed, came to the young bank clerk. The following day the manager of the bank called him into his private office, serious-faced and somewhat distant in his manner.

"Davis," he said, "I am sorry to tell you that you will have to take a leave of absence until the return of the president of the bank, Mr. Morton."

"Why, what does this mean?" exclaimed Walter, staring vaguely.

"Just this: Only yourself and Mr. Morton have keys to the bank. Coming from another town late in the morning, I have found no use for one. Last night some one entered the bank and removed the money and notes we keep in the cashier's box. It is not usually locked up in the vault, as the sum it holds is generally small. However, the notes and some two hundred dollars are missing."

"Do you dare—" began Walter, flaring up instantly, but the manager silenced him with the words:

"No one suspects you, but the bank directors hold you responsible as the possessor of a key to the institution. They demand an investigation, and your temporary resignation until Mr. Morton returns."

The matter was plainly put and Walter could not rebel. The story got about town. No one accused him openly, but there were hinted suspicions, and to say the least he felt uncomfortable.

Old Mr. Morton was a crabbed, suspicious man, and Walter wondered how Viola would take it. He went to a lawyer, but the latter advised him not to stir things up.

Walter kept up a brave front. In noance armed him against real fretting, and hope made him cheery and bright as usual.

"I have good news for you," announced his lawyer, appearing at the Davis home just after dusk one evening. He was quite excited, and he had a companion at whom Walter glanced curiously and then recognized.

"Why, I've seen you before," said Walter.

"Yes, you gave me some help about a week ago," replied the blind man. "I happened in town today. I learned of your trouble and I found your lawyer. You called me 'friend'—do you remember?" asked the mendicant, with a noticeable huskiness in his throat.

"Well, aren't we friends?" smiled Walter.

"I'm going to prove it. Go ahead, Mr. Lawyer. You've described that fellow, Lowell, He tallies. Give me a sight of him."

"What's that? A sight of him?" cried Walter.

"You will understand later, Walter," promised the lawyer. "Just run us against Lowell, some way."

Walter felt that there was something mysterious in the proceedings. He noted also that the blind man accompanied them at quite a brisk gait and without guidance.

It was a moonless night. Suddenly, as they turned a corner, they came face to face with Bruce Lowell, strolling along by himself. The blind man took a step forward, bent his glance on the approaching figure, and cried out sharply.

"That is the man!"

"You are positive?" questioned the lawyer.

"I'd swear to him anywhere," avowed the mendicant. "That man was one of two men whom I saw enter the bank at midnight on the night of the robbery. His companion unhinged one of the iron gratings and forced up a window. The fellow with him had a wooden leg."

"Hello! hello! hello!" exclaimed the lawyer in three different tones of voice, evincing in turn wonder, suspicion and then triumph. "You didn't tell me that before. You have given me a final clue."

"What is this nonsense?" demanded Lowell indignantly, but pale and trembling.

"This man identifies you as one of the bank robbers," he says," replied the lawyer.

"Why! but he is blind," exclaimed Walter.

"Yes, day times," said the mendicant. "I am what is called a nyctalops—I can see at night."

The next morning the lawyer, Walter and the mendicant had an interview with the bank manager. Then the lawyer made a hurried visit to a neighboring town.

He had remembered that Lowell had a relative there, an ex-convict, who had but one leg. The man confessed to the crime when he learned that otherwise both he and Lowell would be arrested.

Lowell was given his walking papers and disappeared. Somehow the story got out. When the banker and his daughter returned to Millville, it was to learn the whole story. Against his wishes Walter had been put up as a candidate for a public office, and was more popular than ever.

"You seem always making people happy," said Viola a few evenings later, referring to the blind man whom Walter had sent again on his way rejoicing. "I wish I was as fortunate as you."

"Do you really?" asked Walter earnestly. "Then begin the good work, by telling me that you will make me the happiest of men by returning my love."

"Oh, Walter," confessed Viola impulsively, "I did that long ago!" (Copyright, 1912, by W. G. Chapman.)

Marking of Sheep.

Means prevailing at present for marking sheep for the purpose of identification is unsatisfactory for the reason that the coal tar or pitch solution which is made use of has a serious effect on the wool, not only where the mark has been made on the hair but all that which is being put through the cleansing process at that time. Such wool brings a decreased price. The National Society of Agriculture of France has been investigating the matter, and the report of those appointed to do the work contains the following: It has been proposed to use aniline colors, but this is even worse, since the colors do not merely soil the fleece, but actually dye it. Other means are not lacking, notably that of tattooing the ear of the sheep. Also, a small metallic plate can be fastened in the ear, as is done with African sheep to prove that they have been "clavetized," i. e., inoculated with the special serum which combats their dangerous eruptive malady, rot or scab. The syndical chamber of commerce and industry advises the employment of a color composed of linseed oil, essence of turpentine and Prussian blue or similar color. It recommends marking on nose, forehead or nape of neck.

When the Principal Fainted.

A certain school principal was very busy into the office came a tiny, eager-faced lad who respectfully asked leave to put "an important question."

"I've studied and studied about it, and I can't find any answer in the books," he explained.

"All right, John," replied the principal. "Go ahead."

And this was John's problem: "Please tell me, if you had fleas on you and you had a shock of electricity sufficient to kill you, would it kill the fleas?"

THIS FENCE DIFFERENT

Our customers who have used Apex Fences don't want any other now.

Apex has all the best features of good fencing:

Open Hearth Steel Wire
Thorough Galvanizing
Guaranteed Stock-Proof Construction
Firm, Rigid Stays which Hogs can't bend up at the bottom.

But, besides all these good points, Apex has two distinct features which other fences lack. The "swinging joint" makes it the only perfectly adjustable fence to all hilly and sloping land. That saves you time, trouble and labor, and is worth money to you.

The stays of Apex are reinforced to "double strength" at every joint. At that point they are heavier than the stays of any other fence.

Don't buy another rod of fence till we have shown you the big advantages of the Apex line.

Another Boost for Poultry.

The poultry department at the University of Missouri has been informed that the food research laboratory of the bureau of chemistry heretofore located at Nashville, Tenn., and under the direction of Dr. Mary E. Pennington and Prof. H. C. Pierce, is to be removed to Sedalia, Mo. The work of this laboratory consists of studying the marketing of eggs and poultry from the producer to the consumer.

There is a great need of such work in Missouri. A conservative estimate places the loss in eggs during a single year at $3,000,000. A large percentage of this loss is borne by the farmer and the loss is due to the average low quality of eggs and the consequent low prices.

One of the first steps will be to organize the dealers in the state to buy eggs on a quality basis. The elimination of bad eggs at the receiving station, where it has been tried in this state, results in an increase in the price of eggs of 3 cents per dozen. This means that the producer of poor eggs pays the penalty and the producer of good eggs reaps the reward. It is only on this basis that the egg industry in Missouri can approach its possibilities, and Missouri is to be congratulated on having the laboratory within its boundaries.

The story the bank book tells

There is no more interesting reading than the credit pages in your bank book, telling you the sum that is held subject to your order. Your success is measured by the figures in your bank book. If you have a bank account which is growing every month, you are on the royal road to success.

Employers are quick to learn of the fellow with a bank book and he is the man they look to first when responsible positions are open.

HE SAVED HIS FRIEND

In Fact, Two Friends Were Saved From Impending but Different Disasters.

By CECILLE LANGDON.

"It is certainly very mysterious," said Mrs. Little. "Bruno is acting so strangely I cannot account for it at all."

"It is worse than mysterious—it is positively heartbreaking!" said Ina Dawes, but she said it to herself.

"Everything was going so lovely," continued the little widow. "I invited you down here, Bruno, as my heart dearly wished, was more than attentive to you. His friend, Jack Lowry, came on. Then Beatrice Dale has that stately Miss Vavasour visit her. Right away, too, Bruno neglects you and becomes devoted to Miss Vavasour. Poor Jack, the rejected, is inconsolable, and you, my dear—"

"Don't think of me, my friend," said Ina bravely. "I am afraid I attached too much weight to your brother's—flirting."

"But Bruno was not flirting," disclaimed Mrs. Little solemnly. "I know he wasn't."

"Then?"

"That Miss Vavasour has simply hypnotized him with her queenly ways and really handsome face. He will come back to his first allegiance. Trust me."

It was certainly a complex and dismal situation at Poplar Grove, the pretty country home of the fashionable widow, Mrs. Little. Life had gone like a beautiful dream for Ina, until this stately Miss Vavasour had appeared on the scene. At first Jack, the enthralled, had been her ardent knight errant. Then Bruno had supplanted him unmistakably in the affections of the new brilliant star.

Ina left her friend and old college companion, and walked pensively through the garden towards the river. She sighed as she saw a dolorous-faced gentleman pacing a densely shaded by path. It was Jack Lowry, usually the soul of cheerfulness. Ina reflected that this wilful, coquettish Miss Vavasour had a good deal to answer for in distracting the happiness of others.

Sweet Ina was deeply hurt. Bruno Moore had certainly taken a step beyond mere friendship in those first days of her stay at Poplar Grove. Even now when they met there was a latent fondness in his eyes for her, and a loyal expression of regard in his treatment of his oldest chum, Jack. Yet all his spare time was devoted to Miss Vavasour, so what could they think except that his real interest was centered in the new beauty?

Ina strolled along rather dejectedly until she reached the rustic bridge spanning the river. She sat down near some bushes on the bank. Then she idly watched a new comer on the scene. This was Beatrice Dale. The latter stood leaning and half seated on the frail railing that protected the bridge.

"Even she does not look happy," reflected Ina. "They say she was at one time very much in love with Bruno. Ah, me!" and the little maid sighed, and half wished she had never come away from the serene home where she had never so much as heard of such a thing as heartbreak. Suddenly there was a crackling sound upon the still air, a shriek and a splash. Miss Dale had infringed too fully upon the integrity of the flimsy bridge rail. It had given way, and she was precipitated into the water ten feet below. The startled Ina noticed that she landed sideways against one of the extending timber supports of the bridge. Stunned and helpless, she sank; she came to the surface again, but limp and lifeless.

Ina was a superb swimmer, for she had been brought up in a seaport town. She was soon in the water. She could not, however, sustain the dead weight of the insensible girl and swim to shore. Fortunately, after drifting twenty feet, she neared a wire running to a timber under the bridge, clung to it, holding the rescued girl out of the water, and screamed for help.

It was Jack Lowry who finally appeared. He soon had both girls safe on the bank. It was Jack who carried Miss Dale to her home. The next day Ina received a note from Miss Dale asking her to call upon her at once.

Ina found Jack seated on the porch of the Dale home. He flushed a trifle as he saw Ina, mumbled some excuse about an engagement, and the two girls were alone.

"I have something to say to you, Miss Dawes," began Beatrice in a tremulous tone. "You saved my life yesterday."

"Brave Jack"—began Ina.

"No, you. I have something to confess to you, something I feel very sorry for, now that I see how unhappy I have made you—you, who have done so much for me. I sent purposely for my friend, Miss Vavasour, to win the love of Bruno Moore away from you, because I was jealous and wicked."

Beatrice was crying by the time she got through with her humiliating confession. Ina smiled sadly and stroked her hand reassuringly.

"Never mind, dear," she said courageously. "If Miss Vavasour is Bruno's fate, let us wish him all due happiness."

"But she can never make him happy!" cried the wretched Beatrice. "She is false-hearted, a coquette. She has told me that it is only money and position she is after. Oh! why did I act out this wilful, wicked plot? Why have I destroyed the love and peace of others?"

However, one good result came out of it all. Jack seemed now attracted to the really pretty Beatrice, and the latter began to wear a happier face. One evening Bruno came into the garden, where his sister and Ina were seated engaged in some fancy work.

"Well," he announced, "I have just seen Miss Vavasour homeward bound on the train—thank goodness!"

His sister stared at him and Ina felt a new throbbing at her heart. Bruno had brought a chair close to her side.

"Why do you say that, Bruno?" inquired Mrs. Little.

"Because I am truly thankful, indeed. Miss Vavasour's sister sent for her and now—a happy return to the dear old times," cried Bruno joyously. "Ina, will you take a stroll with me?"

"Do you not think a few explanations are in order first, brother?" inquired Mrs. Little, rather coldly.

"That's deserved—why, certainly!" replied Bruno, in his usual bluff, jolly tone. "I have hurried back here fast as I could purposely to explain to both of you that my horrible conduct—"

His sister groaned.

"My 'undying devotion' to Miss Vavasour—"

Ina sighed.

"Was all a game?"

"A game?" repeated Mrs. Little wonderingly.

"Yes. The first night Miss Vavasour arrived," said Bruno, "poor Jack fell head over heels in love with her. I saw his danger, for I had heard of her in the city as a heartless, calculating coquette. To save Jack I devoted my time to Miss Vavasour. She has gone home somewhat soured, and I fancy has half guessed my plot to save a soft but noble hearted friend from the wiles of a siren. Ina, will you come for that stroll?"

"Yes, Bruno," responded Ina gladly. "I will go—now."

They met two other strollers in their progress—Jack and Beatrice—and when the happy-faced couples came in to tea a little later, observant Mrs. Little knew that there would soon be some interesting announcements.

GIRLS IN CANADIAN STORES

In City of Montreal Only Three Per Cent. Were Not Compelled to Labor for Livelihood.

The claim so often made that girls in department stores do not require a living wage, because they are living at home, has been punctured again by an interesting research made by Montreal young women, says the Survey. An association of department store girls organized for semi-religious and semi-educational purposes, conducted an investigation for the child welfare exhibition now in progress in Montreal. They secured responsible young women in each of the stores to make the rounds of their associations. The questionnaire was of the briefest possible kind, prepared by the director of the child welfare exhibition and adapted to amateurs. The result showed that out of the 2,471 women employed in eleven stores in the city:

Seven per cent. were the sole support of their family.

Sixty per cent. were aiding in the family support.

Thirty per cent. were living alone and supporting themselves.

Three per cent. worked only for pin money or clothing, making no contribution to the finances of the home. The fact that a girl is living at home may mean that she is protected in her recreations and social engagements, but these Montreal figures add to the cumulative evidence that it does not mean that she can depend upon others for her support and thus work for less than a living wage.

FOR DELICATE CHILDREN.

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.

Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee. Orca-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.
